Adams -- McInroy Nuptials At St. Andrew's

A quiet wedding took place on Saturday, December 26th at 2:00 p.m. in the Presbyterian Manse, Stirling, when Beverly Jean, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. McInroy, Stirling, R.R. 2, was united in marriage to Paul Edward Adams, Stirling, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Adams, of Havelock. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. K. J. Rooney in the presence of the immediate families.

The bride wore a champagne coloured sheath style dress of embossed bengaline with matching bolero and a corsage of pink roses.

The matron of honour, Mrs. Walter Wrightman, of Stirling R.R. 3, wore a moss green wool sheath style dress with pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Mr. Walter Wrightman attended the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for about forty guests.

The bride's mother wearing a beige chrome-glo taffeta gown with green accessories and a corsage of bronze 'mums, received, assisted by the groom's mother wearing a dress of royal blue brocade with white accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The bride's table was appointed with the traditional white damask and centred by a three-tier all-white wedding cake topped with white doves beneath an arch of white orange blossoms. Tall white candles in crystal candle holders completed a lovely nuptial setting.

Misses Elva and Shirley Adams, Shirley Boudier and Helen Fleming served the guests.

For going away the bride chose a royal blue velvet dress with brown accessories.

Guests were present from Havelock, Norwood, Trenton, Belleville and Stirling.

Prior to her marriage the bride was the honoured guest at a lovely kitchen shower at the home of Sharon and Donna Hammond.

The sympathy of the community is extended to the relatives and friends of Mrs. Elizabeth Brunton who was laid to rest last Thursday.

Sorry to report that Mrs. Susan Simpson broke her hip on Saturday. Being one of our elderly residents whose health has been failing for some time, doctors are undecided as yet what course will be taken in treating the broken limb.

Mr. Frank Osborne returned to his home on Saturday from St. Joseph's Hospital in Peterborough. Although progressing favourably he will be convalescing for some time at home.

Several from the community attended the "Walter Elliott Night" at the Masonic Temple last Thursday evening.

As usual, Santa Claus arrived,

How much of your first $100,000.00 will you save by next New Year?

That's right — your $100,000.00. For, believe it or not, you'll likely earn more than that during your working years. Question is: how much will you keep?

Right now is the time to resolve to keep a larger part of what you earn throughout this new year. And the place to keep it is in a B of M Savings Account. Make saving every pay-day your No. 1 New Year's resolution this year. The B of M can't help you resolve to stop eating between meals or get you to work on time, but it can help you save.

Why not start your account tomorrow at "MY BANK" — it's a good place to accumulate a portion of the vast sum you will earn during your working years. It takes just one dollar — and three minutes — to open your B of M Savings Account.

Here's a resolution-keeper... Ask at your neighbourhood B of M branch for a copy of our booklet "Blue-Print for Successful Personal and Family Financing". It will show you how to make up a workable budget that will keep your New Year's resolution intact.

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

WHY HE WORKS

Casually I asked a man with a great deal of money why he continues to work. "Why do you keep going under such pressure," I asked, "when you could afford to jump in your car and go touring to Mexico or wherever? You've got it made . . . so why keep slugging?"

We had been having coffee in a Main Street restaurant and his car was parked across the street. "Come for a ride," he said, "and I'll show you why I keep slugging."

Well, to make a long story short, we toured the better suburbs of the city, and he pointed out to me no less than ten very nice homes. In front of some there was evidence of youngsters at play; others had the second car in the driveway — all looked neat and prosperous.

In everyone of these homes lived the family of an employee of one or another of my friend's various companies.

We then took a trip to the less posh area of town, and he pointed to places where men who worked for him were living. Not in poverty by any means, but in far less comfortable quarters than the others.

"When every person who works for me lives in a darn fine house in a good section of the city, I'll feel I can stop slugging," he told me. "I am sure as the devil not working for myself any more; I've got all the money I'll ever need, and I don't spend much anyhow."

"I think I believe you," I said, "but millions wouldn't. If I wrote you up in my column, at least twenty readers I know would write sarcastic letters to the editors claiming Ambrose Hills had gone soft in the head."

"You try writing me up in your column," he said, "and I'll blacken one of your brown eyes for you."

I have written him up anyhow. I believe every single word he said. If that is soft-headed, okay — I am going soft. I only wish there were more people working hard so that others benefit, because that is always the result of hard work. There is nothing in the world to share unless it is first produced, and it takes work to increase production.

ber 22nd in Trenton Memorial Hospital following an illness of several months. She was in her 87th year.

Predeceased by her husband Kirk Moran, she is survived by two sons Raymond Moran, of Frankford, and Howard Moran, Frankford R.R. 1 and three daughters, Mrs. Earl (Carrie) Elliott, Toronto; Mrs. Cecil (Ardis) Cumberland, Toronto, and Mrs. Thos. (Helena) Hassler, of Dunville.

THE BIBLE TODAY

(By Rev. C. R. Ruddy)

Bible week and Bible Sunday across Canada was marked by an emphasis on the Bible, and in 1959, ceremonies of Public Bible reading were held on the streets and at many public buildings.

The Prime Minister of Canada, the Premiers of Provinces, Mayors of Municipalities and religious leaders were invited to conduct Public Bible reading on Thursday, December 3rd at 12 noon.

The response to the invitation was both cordial and co-operative. The Salvation Army used their officers and cadets on main intersections in cities and towns, and Bishops, Clergymen and Ministers proclaimed the Scriptures in many locations.

It is expected that Public Bible reading will be a feature of the observance of Bible week in the future.

Suggested Bible Readings

Sunday — Luke 1: 26-56
Monday — Luke 1: 57-80
Tuesday — Luke 2: 1-20
Wednesday — Luke 2: 21-38
Thursday — Luke 3: 1-20
Friday — Galatians 2: 1-21
Saturday — Acts 15: 1-21

The Good Driver

BULLY UNPOPULAR
EVEN ON HIGHWAY

One of the most popular story endings is the one in which the bully is beaten by the boy he thought was weaker. On the highway, this type of ending isn't always happy because even when a bully gets his comeuppance in traffic, somebody gets hurt, often badly.

The highway bully is probably one of the most unpopular, and therefore one of the most menacing, characters in existence. He not only cares nothing for the rights of others but seems to deliberately go out of his way to push other traffic around. He'll persist in refusing to signal his movements, bring his car to a "Stop Street" half way over the intersection and hold it there to force the other vehicles to go around it, double-park with complete disregard to the resulting disruption of traffic movement, drive at a snail's pace on a street where scores of vehicles are trying to maintain a higher speed, take his easy-going time in moving ahead on a green light, push precariously from one lane to another in a weak attempt to get ahead of everybody else, and go in for a dozen other tricks and gimmicks labelled "mean."

He has no conscience and becomes angry when a policeman accuses him of breaking a traffic law. He has a store of choice language to use when some riled driver or pedestrian points out his feelings. He seems to take particular delight in upsetting others at every turn.

Traffic-safety authorities know of no solution to this mess. Law-abiding, common-sense motorists and pedestrians can only wait until someone, considered fair prey by the bully, turns out to be either more cunning or stronger and gives him a beating.

Timber Failures Can Be Checked

Cattle will soon be coming into Winter quarters, and some of them will not get out — killed by stable ceilings collapsing on them.

Why do stable ceilings collapse? Besides overloading, there are two main causes: Poor ventilation and Powder Post Beetles.

In a poorly ventilated stable, the moisture given off by respiration condenses on the cooler walls and ceiling — and this situation is ideal for the growth of organisms which produce rotting of wood. The temperature is high and the continued moisture on the outside of the timber soon starts the moulds growing.

Remember that a dairy cow breathes out between one and two gallons of water every day. In a forty-cow herd, this could amount to eighty gallons of water being absorbed by the air — and much of it condensed on the ceiling and walls.

Good ventilation gets rid of this excess moisture (and also removes stable odours and keeps the temperature down to a more healthy level for the livestock). And with this moisture removed, moulds cannot grow on the wood, and the life of the barn — and its occupants — is increased.

Powder Post Beetles can make hollow shells out of timbers that at a casual glance from the outside appear to be sound. The beetles burrow inside timbers and leave a small deposit of sawdust in their wake. Eventually, they may riddle timbers so thoroughly that a light load may snap them.

Powder Post Beetles can be controlled by fumigation, but the most practical method is to use a spray. Ontario Department of Agriculture Publication 140, "Powder Post Beetles", outlines the habits of this pest in detail, and supplies control measures. A copy is available at the office of the Agricultural Representative.

Life More Abundant

Christ Jesus said (John 10:10), "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." These words have often been quoted to convey the thought that the purpose of Jesus' ministry was to bring mankind an abundance of material goods. While a satisfying human existence is right, it should be, however, the result of following the Master's teachings.

An abundant life is to know God and His complete idea. Thus one finds all that is needed for his welfare and happiness. Jesus plainly states this when he says (Matthew 6: 33), "Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you." We have no reason to believe that the "kingdom of God" is localized, but we have Biblical authority for considering it a God-governed state of consciousness. Did not Jesus say (Luke 17:21), "The Kingdom of God is within you?"

Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, says in speaking of God in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 140): "Not materially but spiritually we know Him as divine Mind, as Life, Truth, and Love. We shall obey and adore Him understandingly, warping no more over the corporeality, but rejoicing in the affluence of our God."

The demonstration of an abundant life does not depend upon the passage of time but upon spiritual understanding. Health is not dependent upon flesh but upon the embodiment of right ideas. Right guidance comes not through human education but through divine wisdom.

The Master spoke with spiritual conviction, making his words practical. In proportion as we apply the same spiritual conviction in dealing with human problems of lack, we shall experience tranquility and fulfillment. Life more abundant is possible of present attainment and uninterrupted duration. — From The Christian Science Monitor.

Car Insurance

Canadian car owners can expect little change in their auto insurance premiums when they renew policies in 1960, advises The Financial Post.

Most auto-insurers, however, plan to introduce a new accident-free rating category which will result in some premium reduction for drivers who qualify. Insurance companies are also considering initiating discounts for the smaller car models which have proved to be less costly to repair.

Judicial Inquiry Cost $17,789 At Belleville

The judicial inquiry into Belleville's financial position which was held during October will cost the City of Belleville a total of $17,789.58, it was learned this week by Mayor Gerald B. Hyde.

The inquiry, held before Judge Arthur Roy Willmott, of Cobourg, went for 16 days and saw thousands of words written into the record.

The above figure of $17,789.58 as the full cost of the inquiry has been certified by Municipal Affairs Minister Hon. W. K. Warrender and is to be paid by the City of Belleville to Commission Counsel Stanley Fennell, Q.C., who will look after the disbursement of the money.

The familiar North-country voice of Sam Pollock wakes many an expatriate Briton early on Sunday mornings when Postmark U.K. is heard on the CBC Trans-Canada network. Sam, a freelance broadcaster and journalist, makes a point of collecting interesting pieces of "news from home" which aren't important enough for the international press.

You May Have To Brake Suddenly

You may have to brake unexpectedly to-morrow, warns the Ontario Safety League, because another car crowds you without warning. If and when it happens, remember that the other driver isn't deliberately trying to give you a hard time — it is just that he made a slip, through inattention. He isn't feeling too good. He has just been fired. A flu cold is making him dizzy. His wife is quarrelling with him, and his boy is in some sort of trouble with the police. The tax people have nailed him for three-years' undisclosed bonus. He can't find his trout rod, and the roof needs re-tilling — In the circumstances, is it going to do much good to blast him with your horn when he cuts in ahead too sharply?

Emergency ward beds in hospitals are needed for the sick . . . they should not be taken by the careless. Good drivers do not fill these beds, says the Ontario Safety League.

By making these things ourselves, we have earned a standard of living admired throughout the world. Nearly half of all employed Canadians work in manufacturing. Without our factories we would be principally employed in producing raw materials for other nations to process.

We enjoy our present way of life because we work not only on the land but also in modern factories. One good way to maintain this is to buy Canadian-made goods.

NEWS FOR THE BUSY FARMER

WHAT'S YOUR CHOICE — SPRING OR FALL CALVES?

Most of Ontario's commercial cattlemen like to see their calves dropped in the Spring after the cold weather of Winter and before the heat and flies of Summer. Others try to have their calves born in the Fall before Winter arrives. Why the difference?

Says O.A.C. Beef Cattle Researcher, Tim Burgess: "Most often the choice depends on how much free chortime you have at different times of the year. If you run a beef-cow herd as your whole enterprise, then Spring is probably your best choice. But maybe you're better off with Fall-born calves if you're in two or three enterprises and can't afford the time to look after your calves. Your herd or your corn will suffer if you're busy castrating when you should be scuffling corn, or vice-versa," he adds.

"Spring-born calves have a lot of advantages," he explains. "Take the cows, for instance. They milk better when they're on dry feed. Also cows that are bred on pasture are a little more likely to conceive," he explains. "There are some calf benefits, too," he adds. "Calves are of good age by Winter and can better stand the cold weather. The work load is lighter, too, with Spring calves — cows and calves can be run together on pasture and in the barn. Also, if you've got a heavy schedule of Winter chores, you'll find that Spring calves can be sold at weaning time with no overwintering or as yearlings with just one wintering."

What about Fall calves?

"If you've got a heavy workload in the Spring and Summer, you'll probably find you've more time to care for Fall calves," says the Ontario Department of Agriculture Researcher. "Cows are usually in better condition in the Fall — and newly dropped calves are likely to be stronger. Young calves will escape the heat and flies of Summer, too. Also, when Fall calves are weaned, they can be turned out on pasture instead of dry lot. And beef cows that calve in the Fall often milk longer and the calves can take the milk longer before being weaned."

TODAY'S FARM DOLLAR GROSSES HIGHER RETURN

The "good old days" on the Canadian farm front may not have been all they are cracked up to be.

At least this is indicated by a study of capital — gross income relationships conducted by C. K. Varkaris, Canada Department of Agriculture economist.

Mr. Varkaris found that for every dollar of gross income in 1935, there was an investment of $8 in land, buildings, machinery and livestock. The gap has narrowed greatly since then. In 1957, for example, the investment per dollar of gross income was $3.56.

Gross income consists of cash income from the sale of farm products, income in kind (poultry and eggs, meat, fruit, vegetables, honey, maple products, dairy products, forest products, wool and cereal products used by the farmer, and house rent), supplementary payments made by governments, and the value of inventory changes.

In 1953, the ratio varied from a high of $7.90 in Saskatchewan to a low of $4.38 in Nova Scotia, and in 1957 from $4.38 in Alberta to $2.96 in Prince Edward Island.

The capital investment per dollar of net income (returns to operator's labor and capital) was much higher. For every dollar of net income in 1935 there was an average investment of $19.77, and in 1957 there was an average investment of $9.80.

Apart from better weather conditions in the later period, increased efficiency and increases in other inputs, such as fertilizer and herbicides, as well as improved feeds and practices, largely accounted for this trend in capital — gross income ratio.

CHECK HAY QUALITY NOW

Take a close look at your hay the next time you are tossing down bales. "It's a good way to pick up last year's mistakes," says O.A.C.'s crops extension specialist, Stan Young.

The reason for poor woody hay is that it was far too late when it was cut. Another common loss of hay quality is leaf shatter. The biggest single reason for leaf breakage and loss is bad timing of haying operations, or simply baling too dry. Seed on the grasses or legumes is another sign that the hay was cut too late.

"The right time to cut hay is when the most feed value per acre is obtained," says Young. "And that is when the alfalfa or clover is just beginning to bloom."

GOOD BUTTER SALES TO U.K. EXPLAINED

Reasons why Canada has been able to export butter to the United Kingdom in considerable volume for the first time in almost 40 years were spelled out to the Ontario Creamerymen's Association by D. B. Goodwillie, chief of the merchandising section, Dairy Division, Canada Department of Agriculture.

Canada shipped over 13,000,000 pounds to the U.K. this fall, receiving substantially higher prices than either New Zealand or Australia.

A prime factor, said Mr. Goodwillie, was the lower price for butter in 1958 (it was sometimes lower than the price for margarine), which stimulated European consumption. This increased use carried over into 1959.

Europe's buoyant economy was another main reason for Canada's heavier butter export sales.

Dry weather left its mark. While Denmark, The Netherlands and Germany produced as much or more milk in 1959 than in 1958, the U.K., swelling through the driest summer in its history, saw butter production reduced more than 50 per cent and cheese production cut by 11 per cent.

The export picture has changed within the past few weeks, Mr. Goodwillie added, and prices, particularly for butter, have been reduced substantially. Some importers, he said, are now offering Canadian butter on the U.K. market at considerably less than cost.

On the home front, Mr. Goodwillie said he was not as pessimistic as some others about prospects. He pointed out that while consumption is currently running four per cent below last year, production is also down.

Better Prospects

If both trends continue, he explained, the stock position next May might be somewhat better than it was the same time in 1959.

He supported this statement by pointing out that the sale of government owned butter to date has been substantially higher than it was in 1958 or 1957.

Mr. Goodwillie also discussed some of the problems involved in reducing the price of butter, and questioned whether the high administrative costs that would be required would justify the results.

"I think perhaps we should be devoting more of our energies to selling a top quality product at a good price," he said.

Purchases and sales of butter under the Agricultural Stabilization Board programme were discussed in some detail.

SEBAGO TOP SEED SPUD

A total of 43,461 acres of potatoes passed field inspection for certification as seed in 1959, according to the Plant Protection Division, Canada Department of Agriculture.

This was about 12 per cent less than in 1958, but only five per cent less than the five-year average.

Sebago accounted for almost 45 percent of the total acreage. Katahdin, Kennebec, Netteed Gem, Red Pontiac, Irish Cobbler and Green Mountain followed in that order.

These seven varieties make up 94 per cent of the total acreage — which takes in 34 varieties.

The plant protection division points out that Green Mountain is rapidly losing ground. Bliss Triumph, once an important export variety, is now in 20th place with 45 acres passing.

Christmas Meeting River Valley W.M.S.

A record crowd of members, men, visitors and children enjoyed the Christmas meeting of the River Valley Woman's Missionary Society held at the school on the evening of December 18th. The lovely decorations gave all a renewed Christmas spirit.

The President, Mrs. Glenn Bush, opened the meeting with a poem, "The Guiding Star." All joined in singing the hymn, "O Little Town of Bethlehem," followed by the Lord's Prayer.

Misses Maria Heasman and Cheryl Utman took up the offering which was dedicated by Dr. A. Packman. Everyone was reminded to save their waste paper for the W.M.S.

The programme, which was prepared by Mrs. Gerald Brooks and Mrs. Jack Bush, was presided over by Mrs. Bush. Red candles were lit which added a more festive air.

Mrs. George Heasman and Mr. Jack Bush sang a beautiful number "I Heard the Bells on Christmas Night," with Miss Marilyn Conley at the piano. The theme of the programme was "And the world became flesh and dwelt among us and we beheld His glory as of the only begotten from the Father."

Following the call to worship all sang the hymn "Gentle Mary." Mrs. Jack Bush acted as leader for the worship service. Mrs. Jack Sager read "The Wonders of Christmas," "Angels from the Realms of Glory," was sung. "Sayings of Christmas," was read by Mrs. Roy Irvine. All joined in singing the carol "While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks by Night." Miss Eleanor Bush read "Giving at Christmas." Mrs. Jack Bush closed the worship service with prayer.

Mrs. Glenn Brooks played quiet music while the members of the Mission and Baby Bands filed by to the platform and placed their mite boxes on a table decorated with large Christmas pictures. They all sang "Can A Little Child Like Me," after which Mrs. Gerald Brooks led in prayer.

Everyone enjoyed a piano solo by Mrs. Glenn Brooks. Mrs. Ernest Carr read the poem, "What Is Christmas Mummy?" which was written by Mrs. Jack Baxter to her five-year-old daughter Susan.

Mrs. Geo. Heasman and Mr. Jack Bush favoured with another duet, "O Holy Night." A reading, "Christmas of Long Ago," was given by Mrs. Ross Holland. Master Allan Carr read a poem about being good at Christmas time.

Everyone enjoyed the contra "Feeling of Christmas," put on by the Mission Band group which included readings and carols. At the conclusion of this number they sang "We Wish You A Merry Christmas." Dr. Packman closed this very inspiring programme with prayer.

All made their way to the kitchen where a very delicious lunch was served. Mrs. Ross Holland voiced the thanks of all present for the interesting programme, the very delicious lunch and a very pleasant evening of fellowship together.

Legion Announces Skating News

Due to circumstances beyond their control, Stirling Legion regret that it has been impossible to open the local arena. The Legion has been endeavouring to have the situation remedied, however, at this time it is impossible to give an exact date when a start can be made on flooding and preparing an ice surface.

Recognizing the great need for skating facilities in Stirling, the Legion has decided to do its best to keep suitable areas of the Mill Pond cleared of snow and flooded regularly. It is hoped that some assistance can be obtained from the local fire brigade in the flooding of the pond skating area.

In addition to a considerable loss of revenue from the non-operation of the arena, the Legion deeply regrets the inconvenience caused to local minor hockey clubs. The local Bantam, Midget and Juvenile clubs are forced to play all their games on foreign ice. With no source of income from home games the local teams face a serious financial problem. The Legion would happily endorse any local effort to assist the boys financially.

Any additional information as to skating and arena facilities will be made just as soon as possible.

They also received a lovely lace tablecloth from St. Andrew's Ladies' Aid, West Huntingdon; a beautiful cup and saucer from St. Andrew's Club and a number of gifts from relatives.

In a few well chosen words Beverley and Paul thanked everyone for the lovely gifts and all those responsible for the happy occasion.

A few words of good wishes were tendered the bride and groom by Rev. K. Rooney, Mr. Don Rodgers, Miss Lois Cooke, Mr. Jack Adams, Havlock, father of the groom, and Mr. John McIntosh, father of the bride.

A delicious lunch was served.

District President Speaker At River Valley W.I.

On Thursday afternoon, January 7th River Valley Women's Institute convened at the school kitchen with Mrs. Gerald Brooks as hostess. The special guest was Mrs. Everett Phillips, Belleville, President of West Hastings District W.I., and a member of Wallbridge Branch. There were sixteen members and three visitors in attendance.

Mrs. Roy Tucker opened the meeting with the Institute Ode and Collect. The roll call was a recipe for a blue Monday and a host of ideas were given to help make the day more sunny.

Mrs. George Heasman gave a full report and over $400.00 was in the bank.

The President and Secretary attended the school meeting. On motion of the trustees it was decided that the new school kitchen could be used for class room work if supervised.

The River Valley W.I. received an invitation to attend a meeting next week when a "Ladies' Auxiliary" will be organized in connection with the Hastings County Home at Belleville.

A Toronto newspaper has sponsored a radio drive and a Toronto firm has reconditioned them. To date River Valley W.I. has been responsible for placing nine radios on loan to inmates of the County Home. Probably at a future date others will benefit through this appeal.

A local bricklayer has completed the two card parties in December with proceeds of $23.00. The conveners and all who donated prizes and coffee were tendered a vote of thanks.

The President gave a report of the two card parties in December with proceeds of $23.00. The conveners and all who donated prizes and coffee were tendered a vote of thanks.

Mrs. Roy Bush gave A.C.W.W. news and read an article re Japan and she spoke briefly re the new President, Mrs. F. J. Van Beekhoff, who speaks three languages fluently. She is a daughter of a clergyman and before her marriage in 1937 was a nurse.

In the new business the Building Committee was authorized to have the eavetroughing on the kitchen completed at the same time as the work is being done on the school.

River Valley will cater to the Hickson Barn Sale on February 15th. The conveners will be the members of the Agriculture and Canadian Industries group.

Mrs. Percy MacMullen, Friendship Link Secretary, read a letter of greeting from Abbot's Leigh W.I. in England. The President, Mrs. Cottrell and twelve members, Mesdames Best, Bishop, Bray, Burridge, Chapman, Frompton, Ingram, Jones, Lee, Munt, Withers and Woodville, were responsible for making and forwarding the gifts for each individual member of River Valley. The gift for the kitchen was two Somerset linen tea towels with the W.I. crest and floral emblems. The gift to each Institute member was a lavender sachet bag in a variety of shapes and colours. The members in attendance at the meeting chose their special parcel to carry home. The Secretary displayed a pretty holiday greeting card, a picture of Abbot's Leigh 21st birthday party group as they cut their anniversary cake.

The President recently framed a picture of Royalty and this was hung on the west wall of the kitchen. At a later date the centennial tray will be framed. Members are asked to donate any prints they have of those in costume.

River Valley Women's Institute is now in their fiftieth year and several ideas for celebrating this event were outlined by Mrs. Roy Bush.

It was decided to have a pot luck supper at the IOOF Hall and plans will be completed at the February meeting.

Programme
Mrs. Ralph Utman and Mrs. Ross Holland arranged the programme and the former presided.

The senior girls of River Valley school sang "Over the Snow We Go." The guest speaker, Mrs. Everett Phillips, Belleville, President of West Hastings District W.I., brought greetings on her official visit. She read an article entitled, "Ten Rules for Happiness." She said West Hastings would be celebrating their 60th anniversary in 1961. She then gave the full history of "The Mary Stewart Collect." This creed was written by Mary for her own small group in 1900. It was published in various newspapers in 1904 and in 1910 it was the official prayer card of thousands of organizations all over the United States and Canada. The Collect can be used by a Jew or Gentile, Roman Catholic or Protestant and is not offensive to anyone. Each clause was carefully explained and it will now have a deeper meaning for several of the members who were in attendance at the meeting. Although Mary Stewart composed this Collect over fifty years ago, it still portrays the golden rule — "Do unto others." Mrs. Phillips closed her message with a poem on "Kindness" and all repeated the Collect in unison.

Mrs. Ross Holland voiced thanks to the District President for her message and made the presentation of a small gift on behalf of the River Valley members.

Mrs. Harold Phillips, of Foxboro, District Secretary, brought greetings and spoke briefly. The District Annual will be held in Scott's United Church in May with the Uniondale Branch as hostess.

Mrs. Percy MacMullen gave a message on "Public Relations." She opened with a New Year's poem, written by the late Edgar Guest, and then outlined what has been done in this Department during the past year. She reminded the group that this is World Refugee Year and that each Branch has been asked to assist with this worthwhile project. The speaker said Miss Jayne Gay had greatly publicized this Department over the air waves and she also referred to a recent editorial by Miss Ethel Chapman in Home and Country.

She gave a brief outline of what the Past F.W.I.C. President, Mrs. Keith Rand, had accomplished during her term of office. Mrs. Rand was keenly aware that more publicity of Institute work was needed and she herself gave a great deal of time in preparing articles for various magazines. She and Mrs. Wilson had special scrolls prepared for Princess Margaret and Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth. Mrs. Rand in a closing report said: "Our strength lies in the fact that we are the top ranking adult education group for rural women of Canada."

The new officers are: President of F.W.I.C., Mrs. E. J. Roylance, of Greenwood, B.C.; President F.W.I.O., Mrs. L. G. Lymburner, Port Colborne, Ontario; Provincial Secretary, Mrs. Gerald Holder, R.R. 1 Mono Road, Ontario.

Mrs. MacMullen then took the group in memory back to the Fiftieth Anniversary at Guelph on June 18th, 1947 and the Fortieth Anniversary of River Valley W.I. on February 23rd, 1950. At that meeting the souvenirs included programmes printed on gold and a special song composed by a departed W.I. member this she had printed on gold. This song opened with the words: "Our Institute Branch organized long ago, was new-born in the year nineteen ten." Thus all down through the years River Valley members have been active in the realm of public relations and many good educational programmes have been established.

She also referred to the kind thoughts of two members holidaying in Florida who had forwarded greetings on scenic post cards to the Valley folk. She closed her message with a poem by an unknown author, stressing that we "Do something for somebody."

The convener staged a magazine picture contest and the winners were Mrs. Vernon Harry and Mrs. Sheldon McIntosh.

The hostess and lunch conveners served light refreshments and the pretty cups that had been donated for special occasions were used.

Mrs. Allan McDowell voiced appreciative thanks to all who had made the afternoon a success.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burkitt Mark Golden Wedding Anniversary

Springbrook L.O.L. Hall was prettily adorned for a delightful "at home," held recently by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burkitt, of Bonarlaw, in commemoration of their 50th wedding anniversary when many friends and neighbours came to honour them on this auspicious occasion.

At noon hour more than 50 guests enjoyed the family dinner around the damask-covered table centred by yellow roses. In an adjoining room on a special table reposed the beautiful all white three-tiered anniversary cake, each layer designated by an oval with a gold "50" and topped by a spray of golden leaves and flowers.

Fifty years ago, on a wintry December 29th, the Rev. W. H. Clarke, of Rawdon United Church, united in marriage Miss Lena Reid, of Harold, Ont., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Reid to Arthur Burkitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Burkitt, of Frankford, formerly of Bonarlaw.

From this marriage they were blessed with six children, three sons and three daughters: William and Gerald, of Bonarlaw; Reginald, of Petherick's Corners; Mrs. Ross (Mabel) Dickie, of Bonarlaw; Mrs. James (Margaret) Meneely, of Oshawa, and Mrs. Harry (Gladys) McAdam, of Mount Pleasant.

Following their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Burkitt lived on the farm until four years ago when Mr. Burkitt retired, and they moved to the home in which they now reside, a short distance from the original homestead.

Both are enjoying the best of health and both are interested in community life; Mrs. Burkitt in her home, her church and Institute work, and for recreation, her flowers which bloom under the guidance of her "green thumb." For an additional occupation she is a correspondent of the Stirling News-Argus keeping her readers well informed of the local doings.

Mr. Burkitt's hobby is traveling, either near or far, renewing acquaintances and forming new friendships.

They were the recipients of many fine gifts among which was the installation of a new water pressure system for their home, the gift of their immediate family.

The community adds its congratulations and best wishes to those of their friends for the days that lie ahead, and for the enjoyment of their diamond anniversary together.

St. John's Afternoon Guild

The January meeting of St. John's Ladies' Afternoon Guild was held in the Parish Hall on January 5th with 14 members present.

The opening hymn was sung with Mrs. Frank McGee as pianist. Rev. R. Gale led in prayer and the Guild Prayer.

Following the roll call Mrs. S. Leonard gave the Treasurer's report. Correspondence was read and dealt with. Rev. Gale closed the meeting with prayer.

Mrs. H. Cooke and Mrs. S. McMur-ray served lunch and Mrs. Graver moved a vote of thanks.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. S. Whitehead on Tuesday, February 2nd at 2:00 p.m.

County Juniors Participate At Prov. Jr. Farmer Conference

On Saturday, January 9th, the Junior Farmers' Association of Ontario held their January Conference in the King Edward Hotel, Toronto. This conference features public speaking and singing competitions, ladies trio, mixed and male quartets and non-competitive choir festival. Although the attendance at the conference and the number of competitors in the public speaking competition were slightly down this year, the enthusiasm and the general quality of the competitions were as high if not higher in caliber.

Representing Hastings County in the Public Speaking Competition was Ronald Hamilton, Trenton R.R. 5. The top five finalists in this competition were Joan Berge, Waterloo County; Bill Boulton, Leeds; Francis Doris, Peterborough; John Hohenadel, Wellington, and Marie Sheridan, Lanark. The winner of this competition and thus the winner of the Public Speaking Trophy was Bill Boulton, Lansdowne, Leeds County. Bill Boulton took as the topic for his prepared speech, "Obey Them." He pointed out that we have various signs to help guide us and warn us about the various dangers and hazards that we have through life, and if we would obey them there would be many more of us here to enjoy life. For his impromptu speech, he chose as his subject "The Spectator Athlete." He pointed out that we all might not be able to be active athletes but that we could be much more active as spectators. If we would attend our own local games, it would not only give our local teams more encouragement but would also help in financing it. Judges for the final Public Speaking Competition were Miss Ethel Chapman, Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto; Prof. W. Carpenter, Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, and Padre W. A. Young, Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph.

The adjudicator for the mixed quartets and ladies trio which competed on Saturday morning was Mr. C. Laughton Bird, Clarkson. Mr. Bird complimented the trio and quartets on their fine presentations and gave some very constructive remarks. The winners of the mixed quartet competition was Waterloo County, the members being the Past Provincial Junior Farmer President David Barrie and his wife Miriam, Carol Snyder and David Brubacher. Their test piece was "I Will Give My Love An Apple." The winning ladies trio, York County, did very well with their test piece "Katerina," and as the adjudicator said, did exceptionally well with the number of their own choosing, "You'll Never Walk Alone." He considered this to be the outstanding number of the morning programme. The Hastings County Ladies Trio comprised of Lea In't Veld, Carol Devolin and Janet Reynolds of the Madoc Junior Farmers Club did very well and tied for third place, only four points below the winning trio.

The afternoon program was under the adjudication of Dr. Leslie Bell, who was very impressed with the caliber of the male quartets, which sang as their prescribed number "De Animals a-Comin'." Typical of their quality was the high score of 88 received by the winning quartet from Ontario County. This quartet which showed more polish, chose as their own selection "I Want a Girl, Just Like the Girl That Married Dear Old Dad."

The climax to the afternoon's programme was possibly the non-competitive Choir Festival in which six county choirs competed. Each choir sang their prescribed number "This Land Is Mine." Dr. Bell gave great praise to all choirs mentioning how they had improved and stated that he could not say whether or not he was in favour of non-competitive festivals but could not say that this non-competitive festival was lowering the caliber as he felt that the quality was very high and was thrilled to hear the improvement that these choirs have made in one year. It is hard to state what county choir was the best as a number of them did extremely well. However, Dr. Bell did give particular praise to the Ontario County Choir which he said had a more professional quality about them, and commended them on the number of their own choosing, "Jesus Has Risen." Jokingly he stated when he first looked at the number he quietly said to himself, "why when they are finished this they'll have enough notes left over for an encore." However, as he stated they didn't and he was amazed that a young choir could do such a tremendous job with it.

The closing exercises were very effective with the male quartets under the direction of Mrs. Elsie Dobson, of Port Perry, singing a group of three numbers, "The Junior Farmers Song," "De Animals a-Comin'" and the Queen.

Wrecked cars and other evidence of a recent accident always attract a lot of attention. The Ontario Safety League points out that the curiosity that makes drivers crawl past an accident scene on a busy highway often delays and irritates hundreds of following drivers, thereby increasing the risk of further accidents. If you can't help, keep moving!

In Memoriam

ACKERS — In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Clare Bernard Ackers, who was killed in a car accident, January 18th, 1958.

He bade no one his last farewell,
He said goodbye to none,
The heavenly gates were opened
A loving voice said, "Come."
We often sit and think of you
The things you used to say,
I wonder why you had to die,
Without a chance to say goodbye,
Though out of sight, you're ever
Still missed, loved, still mine;
You will live with us in memory
Until the end of time.

—Loved and always remembered by his wife Betty and son Paul. 48-1p

KERBY — In loving memory of our dear father, Michael Kerby, who passed away January 11th, 1959.

What we would give if we could say,
Hello Dad in the same old way,
To hear your voice, see your smile,
To sit with you and chat awhile.
So you who have a father,
Cherish him with care,
For you'll never know the heartache
Till you see his vacant chair.

—Ever remembered by the families. 48-1

RODGERS — In loving memory of my darling husband and dear dad, Arthur Harold Rodgers, who passed away January 29th, 1958.

What we would give if we could say,
Hello, darling, in the same old way,
To hear your voice, see your smile,
To sit with you and chat awhile.
So you who have a darling,
Cherish him with care,
For you'll never know the heartache
Till you see his vacant chair.
There are others, yes we know,
But he was ours, we loved him so.
Dear God, take a message
To our darling in Heaven above,
Tell him how much we miss him
And give him all our love.

—Sadly missed and never forgotten by his loving wife, Nancy, and sons Meighen, George and Robert. 48-1p

SCOA — In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Lydia Scoa, who passed away January 16th, 1952.

Days of sadness still come over me
Tears in silence often flow,
For memory keeps you ever near
Though you died 8 years ago
And day by day I miss you more,
As my life goes on alone.

—Ever remembered by a loving husband, daughter and son and grandson. 48-1

STONE — In loving memory of our daughter, Elda M. Stone, who passed away January 17th, 1944.

Gone is the face we loved so dear
Silent is the voice we loved to hear,
Too far away for sight or speech
But not too far for thoughts to reach.
Sweet to remember the one who was here

Who gone away is just as dear
—Ever remembered by Mother, Father, Sister and Brothers. 48-1p

PORK PARTICULARLY PLEASING WHEN STUFFED

One of the most appetite-tempting aromas ever to emanate from a kitchen is that of meat and stuffing but practically all cuts of pork are good this way.

The bone in shoulder and leg roasts may be removed and the hollow stuffed before roasting. For loin roasts the stuffing may be tucked into a deep slit which you can cut close to the ribs for the full length of the roast. Or, if you buy one of the new boneless loin roasts, you can remove the string and put a layer of stuffing between the two pieces of meat. In each case string or skewers should be used to keep the stuffing in place during roasting.

Stuffed pork chops, spareribs and tenderloin are good, too. With thin chops the best way is to brown them first then pile rather moist stuffing on top of the chops, sprinkle with paprika and bake until tender in a 325 deg. F. oven. With thick chops (1-inch) a slit is cut from the outer fat edge of the chops almost to the bone and these pockets are then filled with stuffing before being browned 6 to 8 minutes on top of the stove then baked at 325 degs. F. for 20 to 25 minutes.

For stuffed spareribs and tenderloins generally two pieces of meat are used. Stuffing is spread on the bottom piece, then covered with the top one and the whole thing is then tied together. In a 325 degs. F. oven it takes 1 1/2 to 2 hours for stuffed tenderloin and about 2 hours for stuffed spareribs to cook.

Here is the Consumer Section bread stuffing recipe for meat with suggestions for added ingredients that are good with pork:

Bread Stuffing

- 2 cups soft, stale bread crumbs
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 2 tablespoons fat
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1-2 teaspoon pepper
- 2 tablespoons chopped parsley

Saute onion lightly in fat then mix with seasonings and bread crumbs. For pork mix in one or more of the following:

- 1/2 teaspoon sage, savoury, thyme or oregano;
- 1/2 cup chopped raw apple or raisins;

A light sprinkling of garlic powder, chili powder or ground cloves; 1/2 cup chopped celery or mushrooms, sauted with onions.

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

BASIC VALUES

I was engaged in a project with a few other men. We were, I was told at the outset, "doing the rough work so we'd have it ready for Pete when he arrives." I had been engaged to do some of the writing.

Several times, during our meetings and work sessions, it was said that "This had better wait until we talk it over with Pete."

So often was this fellow Pete mentioned that he became almost an obsession with me. I wanted to know more about him. Apparently he was fabulously successful in his operation of a certain company in Edmonton. Those who knew him always referred to him with above-average respect. Gradually I found myself thinking, "Nobody could be that good!" Nevertheless, I waited impatiently for the day that I'd meet this fellow face to face.

Well, I met Pete last night. We went into our session right after dinner and worked until midnight. This morning when I got up, my first thought was about Pete and what makes him tick, what makes his salesmen work so hard for him, and why he is so widely respected.

When I met him first, last night, I was disappointed. He looked like any ordinary Joe, except for a boyish smile that seemed to come very seldom but was like a flash of sunshine.

He wasn't quick on the uptake by any means, and in the first hour or so he didn't contribute a single gem of brilliance to our work. I was quite sure that even I outshone him.

But by midnight, I was his man. I am convinced that the work we were doing was improved immeasurably because he was present, although after a few questions from him we stroked out several of the smoothest paragraphs from the material we had written.

What made this man so impressive?

I think it was the fact that he has a sense of basic values, and you get to know that as you get to know him. He checks every glib phrase, every quick idea, against his sense of what is right and solid and true. You come to depend on the consistency of the man and what he stands for. He never stops to think about what others might think; all his thinking appears to be a straightforward reckoning of what is right and just and good. Perhaps an old-fashioned way of describing him would be to say that he has character.

S.S. No. 24 SIDNEY

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

The Christmas Concert presented by the pupils of S.S. No. 24, Sidney, and several members of Eggleton Sunday School, was held on the Friday night before Christmas at the Church with a large crowd in attendance.

Mr. Bruce Stapley was chairman for the programme that opened with the National Anthem. A chorus by the school, "Christmas Bells," was followed by the welcome, given by Lloyd Clancy.

Eight little junior pupils took part in an exercise, "At Christmas Time." A dialogue, "Christmas Adventure," was presented by six boys, Ivan Reide, Glenn Stapley, Kenneth Danford, Wayne McMullen, Grant Reid and Sam Danford.

The musical skit, "I Came to Your Wedding," with the senior girls and senior boys of the Sunday School classes taking part provided considerable amusement. Tiny Johnson and Sandra Stapley were the two little flower girls. A recitation, "A Boy's Letter to Santa," was given by Wayne McMullen. The juniors in Grades 1, 2 and 3 sang two songs, "The Little Teapot" and "Mary Had A Little Sheep."

An amusing dialogue, "What Became of the Turkey," was well presented by Isabelle Prest, Sheila Clarke, Lois Danford, Dianne Prest, Lloyd Clancy and Gerald Stapley.

The next number was the Nativity pageant, "The First Christmas," with narration by Allen Reide. Those taking part were Linda Prest as "Mary;" Lloyd Clancy, "Joseph" and Lin Stapley, Michael Browning and Brian Kovach, as the "Shepherds." Several Carols were sung with the audience joining in.

Two songs "Christmas" and "Keep the Christ in Christmas," were sung by a group of senior pupils. A recitation, "Christmas is Coming," was given by Michael Browning, Carol and Lois Danford sang "Away in a Manger."

A dialogue, "Miss Santa Claus," was presented by six girls, Beverley Stapley, Carol White, Vickie Browning, Marilyn Stapley, Dianne Prest and Isabelle Prest, showing the true spirit of Christmas, when several less fortunate ones in the town were remembered with gifts at Christmas.

At this time Mr. Stapley on behalf of all present, expressed appreciative thanks to the school teacher Mrs. Bert Reide, to the music teacher, Mrs. Sheppard and to all the pupils for the splendid entertainment.

The closing choruses were "Don't Wait Till the Night Before Christmas" and "Here Comes Santa Claus." Just then Santa in his traditional costume made his appearance and with helpers soon distributed the prettily wrapped parcels beside the beautifully decorated and lighted tree. Each child also received a bag filled with treats.

January Meeting St. Paul's W.A.

The January meeting of St. Paul's Woman's Association was held in the church parlours on Tuesday the 5th with Mrs. H. David acting as hostess.

Mrs. A. Brooks presided, opening the meeting by the use of the theme hymn with Mrs. H. West as pianist. She followed with a New Year's prayer.

The executive was in charge of the devotional, the theme being "Work." Mrs. H. Wells read a poem entitled "Another Year." The Scripture, taken from Hebrews 4: 1-11 and 6: 10-12, was read by Mrs. B. St. Pierre. Mrs. C. Potter read the commentary and all joined in singing the hymn "Work for the Night is Coming."

Under old business the annual reports were read.

Mrs. A. Packman conducted the installation of the 1960 slate of officers. The new President, Mrs. C. Davidson, took the chair. Mrs. H. West favoured with a lovely solo, "My Task." A short skit was presented by four members of the new executive. Mrs. P. Utman and Mrs. R. Tucker portrayed "How not to call on a new member" and Mrs. D. Duffin and Mrs. A. Brooks, "How to call on a new member." All sang the hymn "O Master Let Me Walk With Thee."

THEY FELL BY THE ROADSIDE

ESSEX, JORDAN, DURANT . . . more than 2,400 different cars have been made in North America. Of these, less than thirty still make new appearances each year on Canadian roads.

The reasons for failure were many, but the underlying factor was the inability to make annual profits sufficient for survival and progress.

This is a dramatic example in just one industry of the role of profits in helping a company survive and grow. Without profits, only one road faces any company. It must lay off its employees, close its doors and go out of business.

Whatever the industry, whatever its size, steady profits mean steady jobs.

NEWS FOR THE BUSY FARMER

WARM WATER AND LOTS OF IT FOR DAIRY COWS IN WINTER

Make sure water is readily available and above 35 degrees Fahrenheit in the winter, say livestock experts with the Ontario Department of Agriculture. A cow will take an average of 10 drinks a day if she has free access to water.

The average dairy cow drinks about 12 gallons of water a day and a heavy milker might need as much as 30 gallons — proof enough that to get top milk production (milk contains 87% water) your cows need plenty of water.

PRICES RECOMMENDED FOR SEED OATS AND BARLEY

Based on reports from across the Province, ample supplies of suitable varieties of seed are available, states the Field Crops Branch, Ontario Department of Agriculture. Demands for export and domestic use are encouraging.

Barry and Rodney are the two most popular varieties of oats. Brant, York, and Herta varieties of barley outyield all others.

After careful consideration, the following minimum prices for 1960 seedling were recommended at a recent meeting of the Seed Marketing Committee, Ontario Soil and Crop Improvement Association.

Oats—
Commercial No. 1 Grade — $1.50 per bus.
Certified No. 1 Grade — $1.65 per bus.

Registered No. 1 Grade — $1.75 per bus.

Barley—
Commercial No. 1 Grade — $1.90 per bus.

Registered No. 1 Grade — $2.35 per bus.

These prices are for treated seed in new bags, at producer's farm, F.O.B. shipping point.

Although prices for feed oats are about 15 cents per bushel higher than at this time last year, the recommended prices for seed have not been increased. It is hoped this may encourage a wide distribution of good seed, and further encourage the trend towards the use of standard grades, particularly "Certified."

A complete list of seed for sale in the province is being prepared and will be available at the annual meeting of the Ontario Soil and Crop Improvement Association in Toronto, on January 27th to 29th.

McINTOSH APPLES TO BRITISH COLUMBIA

Shipping apples to British Columbia is like carrying coals to Newcastle. Yet that's what has happened this past season.

Apple production in British Columbia this past season was the smallest in many years. About 4.2 million bushels were harvested, compared with six million bushels last year.

To take up the slack, Ontario and Quebec producers shipped McIntosh apples to the west coast for the first time in the memory of veteran officials of the Fruit and Vegetable Division, Canada Department of Agriculture.

Normally, British Columbia ships apples eastward — especially later varieties not produced by growers in the east.

The sudden reversal in this trend has brought a warning from the Plant Protection Division of the federal agricultural department that eastern shippers must live up to regulations laid down under the Destructive Insect and Pest Act.

W. A. Fowler, chief of the division's plant inspection section, points out that the movement of apples from Ontario to British Columbia is prohibited unless fumigated under the supervision of an officer of the division. This is because of the Oriental fruit moth.

Further, since the apple maggot is known to exist in eastern apple growing areas and not in B.C., apples may be exported only from orchards shown by inspections to be apparently free of the maggot.

RABIES DROP IN 1959

The number of cases of rabies in Canada from April 1st to the middle of December took a 75 per cent drop from the same period a year ago.

A spokesman for the Health of Animals Division, Canada Department of Agriculture said there were 479 laboratory confirmed cases, compared with 1,871 for the corresponding period in 1958.

He termed the situation "not nearly as grave."

Ontario remained the center of infection, with 433 cases. Middlesex, Elgin and Huron Counties and adjoining territory in the southwestern part of the province appear to be the principally infested areas. Ontario last year reported 1,823 cases.

Most significant decline was in the number of foxes infected. The disease has never become established in the dog population, which, if it happened, would pose an even greater threat to humans.

The rabies epidemic broke out among the wildlife in northern Canada about three years ago and gradually spread southward.

Ontario Cheese Winners In England

Once again Ontario Cheddar Cheese has proven its worth in international competition.

The Dairy Branch of the Ontario Department of Agriculture has learned that the Farmer's Joy cheese factory, Monkland, Ontario, has been awarded the Bledisloe Perpetual Challenge Trophy at the recent Dairy Show held in London, England.

The cheesemaker, Mr. Harold Montgomery, is well known for the quality of his work and has been a regular winner in Canadian competitions and former international competitions.

"The winning of this international competition is evidence of the high quality of Canadian cheese and the skill of our cheesemakers," says the Hon. W. A. Goodfellow, Ontario Minister of Agriculture. "It is particularly important with the competition taking place in the United Kingdom which provides an important market for our premium cheddar."

Presentation And Dedication of Flag To Tanner Lodge

On Wednesday evening, November 25th, the Hall of Tanner L.O.L. No. 509 was filled with friends, relatives and members of visiting lodges when the Past District Master, Bro. Murney Johnston presented a Union Jack to the Lodge in memory of his late father Bro. W. J. Johnson, who was a Past Master of District No. 1 and Past County Master of Centre Hastings. The late Bro. Johnston was a member of the Orange Order for over 60 years.

R.W. Bro. Lorne Hagerman very capably acted as chairman, expressing a warm welcome to everyone, also expressing appreciation to the Johnston family for the most appropriate gift given in honour of a most worthy member.

The very impressive Dedication of the Flag was conducted by R.W. Bro. Morgan Brown, of Peterboro, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Ontario East, assisted by R.W. Bro. Rev. H. E. Beare, Grand Chaplain of Ontario East.

Following the Dedication Service, Past Grand Master Bro. Fred Bateman, of Stirling, introduced the guest speaker, Bro. Morgan Brown, who gave a very timely and thought provoking address.

Short addresses were also given by the present County Master and the Deputy Grand Chaplain, Bro. Archie Sinclair, of Tweed; R. W. Bro. Sid Brown, Peterboro, Associate Deputy Grand Preceptor of the Royal Black Chapter; Grand Chaplain, Rev. H. E. Beare and Past Grand Master Fred Bateman.

Music for the evening was supplied by the Salvation Army Band, Tweed, who played hymns with everyone joining in the singing. Mr. Archie Sinclair Jr. gave two cornet solos, "The Holy City" and "How Great Thou Art," which were very much enjoyed.

Bro. Robert Trenear, Worshipful Master of Tanner Lodge, spoke, briefly mentioning the many sterling qualities of the late Bro. Johnston as a member of the lodge and as a neighbour.

He expressed thanks to the Salvation Army for their many fine renditions which added so much to the programme and also to the Grand Lodge officers who made the service so impressive and also for their addresses.

The Queen was sung and lunch was served.

Wellman's W.M.S.

The opening meeting for the year 1960 of the Woman's Missionary Society of Wellman's United Church was held at the Church on Tuesday, January 5th. Eleven adults and one child were in attendance.

The President, Mrs. Omar Dracup, was in charge of the meeting, opening with comments on the study of mission work in Africa, which will be dealt with throughout the year, following with prayer. The hymn, "Lord of All Beings, Throned Afar," was sung. The Scripture Lesson, 1 Corinthians 3: 9-23, was read by Mrs. Geo. Watson, followed by prayer by Mrs. O. Dracup. The hymn "Jesus Calls Us O'er the Tumult," was sung.

Permission was given the financial committee to purchase needed kitchen utensils for use for suppers, etc.

The study book which is based on Africa for this year was given by Rev. and Mrs. W. G. Fletcher. The situation in that country at the present time is very serious. The foundation of the difficulties were given which seem to touch on every phase of life there, proving that very soon there is going to be a great outburst of some kind.

Mrs. Byron Seeley gave a reading entitled, "Prayer for the New Year." Another reading "The Sin of Indifference," was given by Mrs. John Carlisle. Two other readings were much in keeping with the New Year as Mrs. Wilfred Sine read "The New Year" and Mrs. Jack Dunham "One Step Nearer." The hymn, "What A Friend We Have In Jesus," was sung and Rev. Fletcher closed the meeting with prayer.

Mrs. Kenneth Tompkins conducted a musical contest while the hostesses prepared a very delicious lunch. A social hour was spent by all.

St. Paul's W.M.S. Auxiliary Presents Year's Report

Despite slippery streets the January meeting of St. Paul's Missionary Society was well attended.

The President, Mrs. A. Packman, graciously welcomed the ladies and led in a thoughtful worship service, based on St. Paul's Epistle to the Corinthians. The lesson from 1st Corinthians, chapter 3, was read by Mrs. H. Waite. So very appropriate for the beginning of Missionary endeavour of the New Year, were the words of the chapter selected, "Ye are labourers together with God. I have planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the increase."

Mrs. Oliver Stapley acted as pianist in the absence of Mrs. Russell Stapley.

In her "Story of the Year," Mrs. D. Luery, Recording Secretary, reported an active and interesting one in St. Paul's Auxiliary. The various groups had presented splendid programmes based on the Missionary Study books. Various soloists had assisted by their message of song. Special speakers were Mrs. H. M. Davis, Christian Stewardship Secretary of Belleville Presbyterian, who addressed the Eastern meeting. The Rev. E. Leard, of Tabernacle Church, Belleville, was speaker at the December joint meeting of W.A. and W.M.S., and Mrs. Percy MacMullen, Literature Secretary of Belleville Presbyterian, introduced the new study on Africa. In October an interesting playlet "On the Edge of the Village," was presented and by request was repeated at two rallies.

Finances
In the absence of the Treasurer, Mrs. C. Macklin, the report of finances was given by Mrs. J. B. Thompson, showing the allocation exceeded. The sum of $600 had been forwarded to the Presbyterian Treasurer. Membership consisted of 35 annual and 20 life members.

The Mission Band report by Mrs. H. Waite showed a membership of 57 with $150 remitted to the Presbyterian Treasurer.

The Baby Band work given by Mrs. R. Tucker showed a membership of 25 life and 70 annual members with $47.00 sent to the Presbyterian Treasurer. Thirty calls were made by the leaders.

Many Other Reports
Gratifying

Mrs. V. Richardson told of what was done in the Department of Christian Citizenship and Mrs. S. Elliott reported calls on sick and shut-ins — 69 house and 10 hospital calls.

The Associate members had made a fine contribution to the year's finances. In the absence of the Supply Secretary, Mrs. Maurice Bell, that report was presented by Mrs. Oliver Stapley, showing much fine work had been done — the yearly supply allocation met, quilts made, 340 pounds of good used clothing sent by St. Paul's women for overseas relief in June with Carmel assisting in both clothing and shipping charges.

The reports concluded, Rev. A. Packman installed the officers for the new year, congratulating the society on the past efforts and stressing the importance of the great Mission of the church.

Mrs. Geo. Carlisle, 1st Vice-President of Belleville Presbyterian, led the women in a short service of gratitude and dedication of the year's work and gifts. She remarked, "the words of St. Paul to the Corinthians could well be a criterion for our daily living as we take on new duties of office-bearing. Whether, therefore, you eat or drink, or whatsoever you do, do all to the glory of God."

The President called upon Mrs. R. Patterson for a review of the first part of the study book on Africa.

The area south of the Sahara Desert is the area which is really under discussion in this year's study. The spirit of Nationalism is so strong among the Africans and the fear of black supremacy so great among the white population, that the opposing factions frequently create disturbances so great as to make world headlines. Of the 230,000,000 people in Africa only 5,000,000 are white. The whole continent is surging to be free with a rebellion against old injustices. South Africa under white rule, and Ghana under black rule have already achieved independence, and soon Nigeria hopes to be added to the list.

A young African looked thoughtfully out over the water where a small bridge stood. "You know," he said, "we are a bridge — a bridge that spans the whole of Africa." We fail to leave the past completely and we fear to completely enter the present. The old tribal customs, the taboos, the marriage customs, are gradually dying out. The question is, what of the old should Africans hold, and what in the new way of life is better? There has been one revolutionary concept that has been perhaps more persuasive and dynamic than any other. This concept is the emphasis of the Christian Religion on the power and responsibility of the individual. In Luke 17: 21, is given the most concise answer to the quest of not only the African but to all men everywhere: "Behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

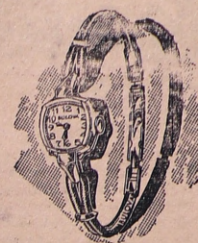

As a fitting closing for the meeting, the new Stewardship Secretary, Mrs. Volney Richardson, spoke briefly on the value and responsibility of our Christian Stewardship and asked all to stand in pledge of their acceptance of their new allocation for 1960, offering prayer for the attaining of the objective.

Mrs. Patterson voiced appreciation of the splendid leadership given by the President, Mrs. Packman, after which the Mizpah Benediction was repeated.

Refreshing coffee was served by members of the Executive.

Past President — Mrs. Geo. Carlisle

Cub Leaders Wanted

Would you want our Cub Pack to close down on account of not enough leaders to work with the boys? Well, that is what will happen if we do not get some help. A Wolf Cub Pack consists of not more than 36 boys led by the Cubmaster and the Assistant Cubmasters. We have been carrying 45 to 50 boys, but we always had lots of help. Being the District Commissioner, I can enforce this law, but how can you pick out 36 boys from 45, and tell the rest to go home. Instead of that, we would close down till we have enough leaders to carry on.

We have twenty boys in the Pack working to get the Second Star and one man cannot give the instruction to that many boys and expect them to get it, as there are no two boys who can learn the same. A leader cannot give the work to more than eight or nine boys. We have another twenty-five working on the First Star work, and many of the boys wanting to do badge work. So how can we get this all done if we have not the help. So folks, it is up to you if the boys have a Cub Pack or not. You cannot make me believe that everybody is so busy that they cannot give a few hours a week on these boys.

Ten years ago when Mrs. Irish and myself took over the boys we had twenty boys in the Pack and not one piece of equipment. Now we have 45 to 50 boys and all the equipment we need, as well as enough camp equipment for forty boys. This was all bought with the boys' money. We have not had to ask for money to run our Pack.

This is the first time in ten years that I have felt I have been let down, so what are you going to do about it? Give me leaders or close it down.

Please get in touch with Bob Cooke, David Duffin or myself if you think you would like to help us out.

J. Irish

How To Stay Young

Youth is not a time of life, it is a state of mind. We grow old only by deserting our ideals. Years wrinkle the skin but to give up enthusiasm wrinkles the soul. Worry, doubt, self-distrust, fear and despair — these are the long, long years that bow the head and turn the growing spirit back to dust. There is in the hearts of all of us, whether seven or seventy, the love of wonder and the love of life. We are as young as our faith and as old as our doubt — as young as our self-confidence — and as old as our fear — as young as our hope and as old as our despair.

Citizens Urged To Support Minor Hockey Week

Reeve J. V. Holt today called upon all citizens to support Minor Hockey Week in Canada which commences Saturday, January 23rd.

In endorsing the observance of Minor Hockey Week, His Worship said: "Observance of Minor Hockey Week in Canada is the best way I could think of to direct attention of the public to the benefits of Minor Hockey to our youths and our Village."

"We are proud of the fact that Minor Hockey here in Stirling has the support of many public spirited citizens, and service clubs, whose love of hockey and of boys prompt them to contribute much effort and time to the operation of the local minor leagues. These outstanding citizens are making a valuable contribution to the community in which we live, as does our great game of hockey contribute entertainment and recreation right across Canada."

"Hockey is Canada's National Game, and participation by the youth of our town is encouraged at all levels. We are proud of our game, of its ability to develop character, citizenship, and respect for authority as well as its physical and body-building benefits."

"For these reasons, I am happy to endorse Minor Hockey Week in Canada, and call upon all citizens to join in the observance of this week by supporting Minor Hockey and by attending games with their sons. I commend to you the official slogan of those promoting the week: 'Don't Send — Take your boy to the Arena.'"

Council Meets With Engineers And Representatives of Contractors

A special meeting of Village Council was held on Monday afternoon with Reeve Holt presiding and all members of Council in attendance.

Prior to the Council meeting a round table discussion was held with representatives of the Ontario Water Resources Commission, Shaw Construction, sewer contractors; Consulting Engineers, Ontario Department of Highways, Bell Telephone, McFarland Construction Co., contractors for lowering and reconstruction of Front St. W., along with storm sewers, etc., and the local Public Utilities.

Reeve J. V. Holt stated the Council and citizens were anxious to have the various projects finished as speedily as possible and the purpose of the gathering was to co-ordinate the plans and efforts of the various parties concerned in the work.

A very lengthy and beneficial discussion ensued, from which the following was gleaned. An early date in February was set as the tentative date for the start of operations for the sewerage system by officials of Shaw Construction. The Bell Telephone and Hydro lines will be moved in time for the road construction work to start the latter part of April, with the paving to be completed in August. Under present plans, Mill St. will be rebuilt by the County under a Development Road plan from the Village limits to James St., but from James to North in the business section the sewerage contractor will repair it.

Owing to the rough condition of the streets making it impossible to use the customary snowplows, Shaw Construction agreed to use a grader to assist in keeping the streets cleared of snow, and the Department of Highways will sand Front and North streets as usual.

Council Meeting

Allan Hay, of the Ontario Department of Highways, addressed Council on the matter of a connecting link contract between the Village and the Department with respect to the portions of Highways No. 14 and 33 within the Village limits.

THE BIBLE TODAY

(By Rev. C. R. Rudd)

The application of electronic computers to the transcription of books into Braille is likely to open exciting prospects for blind readers. With the aid of one of these machines, a 300 page book can now be transcribed into Braille in one hour — a task which would take almost a week for several skilled transcribers to complete. Moreover it takes two years to train specialists of Braille, whereas the new method does not demand a knowledge of Braille on the part of the operator.

The machine receives punched cards on to which the printed text has been transcribed and which feed every letter, number and punctuation mark into the magnetic store. Also stored are the complicated rules of Braille transcription.

The machine responds to as many as 600 instructions in less than one-fortieth of a second. The machine transcribes 4,000 words a minute whereas a human being only does 40. This process is also being developed for the automatic translation of languages.

The meeting was in charge of the new President, Mrs. Wilfred Spencer. The meeting opened with the theme song, "Let the Beauty of Jesus Be Seen in Me." There was a discussion about holding pot luck suppers as were held last winter. It was decided to hold one in the church on Friday evening, January 22nd. The programme committee for this will be Mrs. W. Spencer and Mrs. R. Stewart and Mrs. L. Finch.

As the office of Treasurer was not filled at the December meeting, Mrs. Ellis Jones was elected to the office.

Mrs. Jones was convener for the following programme:

Beare; "Forgive Us," by Mrs. Lindsay Finch; "A New Year's Recipe," by Mrs. Sanford Meiklejohn, and "Christmas Going Home," by Mrs. Fred McKeown; sacred music on the piano, by Mrs. Ellis Jones; vocal solo, "I Hear Thy Welcome Voice," by Mrs. H. E. Beare; animal contest and short sayings contest, conducted by Mrs. Ellis Jones and Mrs. Fred McKeown.

Mrs. Will Rutherford read a short address and Mrs. W. Spencer presented.

ed Mrs. Ray Stewart, retiring President, with a china cup and saucer in appreciation of her many years of service as President of the Woman's Association. Mrs. Stewart replied in a few well chosen words.

The meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Wilfred Spencer. The lunch committee will consist of Mrs. Ellis Jones, Mrs. Lily Anderson and Mrs. Lindsay Finch. Programme conveners will be Mrs. Will Rutherford and Mrs. Ray Stewart. Roll call will be answered by a scripture verse containing the word "Love." Mount Pleasant W.M.S. and W.A. Hold Joint Meeting

A joint meeting of the two organizations was held on Wednesday, January 13th at the home of Mrs. Lindsay McKeown with an attendance of 25 adults. The table decoration was a pink hyacinth which gave a touch of spring. The programme was in charge of the two Presidents.

Mrs. Carleton Potts, W.A. President, opened with the Ode and Lord's Prayer and she read an article for the New Year. Mrs. Burton Sharpe was pianist and all sang "Give Me A Faithful Heart."

Mrs. Grant Hubble was in charge of the worship as outlined in the December Missionary Monthly. Mrs. Harry McAdam read the Bible Lesson. Mrs. Robert Hoard contributed a vocal solo. The offering was gathered by Mrs. Robt. Merrick and dedicated by the Pastor.

The W.M.S. President, Mrs. Herbert Smith, was in charge of the study on "Women in Changing Africa." Various articles were read from the book, "Africa Disturbed," by Mrs. W. G. Fletcher, Mrs. Don Knight, Mrs. Kenneth Weaver, Mrs. Frank Jeffs, Mrs. Carleton Potts, Mrs. Milford Wrightman, Mrs. Garth Joslin, Mrs. Raymond McConnell and Mrs. John Mulheron. One of the chief disturbances is if you are white you live well, if you are black you do not. The W.M.S. minutes were read and approved and reports given.

Mrs. Grant Hubble, Treasurer, has remitted three hundred and six dollars to the Presbyterian Treasurer. All of this was given systematically except the Rally dinner money.

Mrs. Harry McAdam, leader of the Mission Band, has remitted ninety dollars and ten cents to the Presbyterian Treasurer. This included fees, thankofferings, sale of cards, bake sales, etc. There are four honorary members and twenty-three annual members.

Mrs. Raymond McConnell, leader of the Baby Band, remitted to Mrs. R. G. Coulter, Provincial Treasurer, sixty-two dollars and ninety four cents. The money was earned by a travelling basket, thankofferings, mite boxes, etc. There are twenty annual members and five children graduated in July to the Mission Band.

The three groups have remitted $459.00 and the allocation was $450.00. Mrs. Percy MacMullen, Recording Secretary said at the end of 1959 there were six life members and twenty annual members. One life member passed into Higher Service in October. Twelve meetings were held and two members had perfect attendance. The average attendance was sixteen. The two Bands were entertained in July. Mrs. George Carlisle, Mrs. A. Packman and Miss Doris Dunham were the speakers during the year. The Presbyterian Literature Secretary introduced the new study on Africa in August at the home of Mrs. Roy Thrasher. The Sectional Rally for West Belleville was held here with Miss Frances M. Walbridge, of Angola, as speaker.

As Press Secretary she sent in approximately sixty items to two newspapers. This included twelve W.M.S. meetings, eleven Mission Band meetings and the Rally. The Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. John Mulheron, sent out twelve letters of sympathy. Mrs. Milford Wrightman, as Stewardship Secretary, gave seven messages on that subject. She also passed out the Easter and Autumn Thankoffering envelopes. She read a letter from Mrs. H. M. Davis, Belleville, which stated that the 1960 allocation would be $468.00. This is merely asking each W.M.S. member to add ten cents extra to her monthly givings. The increase will be used to raise the annual pension of our retired Missionaries. The Missionary for prayer will be the same.

Mrs. W. G. Fletcher, Secretary of Christian Citizenship, gave messages on temperance, salacious literature, senior citizens and racial brotherhood.

Mrs. Ernest Spencer, Community Friendship Secretary, reported 455 home calls and 176 hospital calls made by the membership.

Mrs. Milford Wrightman reported fourteen subscriptions to the Missionary Monthly and twenty to World Friends. As Literature Secretary the books "Facts and Figures" and "Missionaries At Work" and four other books were purchased at the Rally.

Mrs. Don Johnson, Supply Secretary, sent her report and this was read by Mrs. Burton Sharpe. The donations were $7.00. A sixty-pound parcel of clothing was sent for Overseas Relief to Korea. The allocation of poster paint was forwarded. In December a large parcel of used clothing was sent to a nearby centre. Mrs. Frank Jeffs expressed thanks to Mrs. Herbert Smith for her services at President during the past two years.

Rev. W. G. Fletcher installed the new slate of officers. The new President, Mrs. John Mulheron, spoke briefly and read the message of our late King George VI when he said, "Put your hand in the hand of God."

Mrs. Percy MacMullen read the message written by Miss Blanche Gerhard, telling of her work in the Drumheller Valley, Alberta, as it appears in "Missionaries At Work."

The next meeting will be held on February 10th at the home of Mrs. Robert Hoard. Nine fees were paid to the Treasurer.

The Baby Band will start a travelling basket next month. Both groups will hold a combined executive meeting next week after which the programmes will be planned. The W.A. are sponsoring a dinner meeting at the Church Hall early in February.

The service closed with "Rise UP O Men of God" and prayer by Olive Wyon, "Spirit of Promise and Unity."

The hostess and lunch committee served light refreshments and all enjoyed a brief fellowship.

Member mills of the Canadian Lumbermen's Association produced 167 million board feet of White Pine last year. If used to build a boardwalk 2 inches thick and 4 feet wide, this would make a sidewalk 3,954 miles long — greater than the distance from Halifax to Vancouver.

GOVERNMENT BUSINESS

In my opinion, the main business of government is to govern. There are, however, certain fields of government that have a place in the operation of services. The other day J. S. Vanderploeg told a meeting of purchasing agents what he thought were proper fields for government.

"Certainly we do not want a private army, neither do we want the collection of taxes farmed out," he said. He went on to state that in the postal service, public highways, sewers, sidewalks and administration of justice the government has a legitimate function. And then he got into the thorny problem of where the line should be drawn between legitimate government activity and private business. He thought that governments generally ought to stay out of fields where it could be defined as a seller of goods and services in competition with others.

"But I am afraid," he said, "it will get more and more competitive with printers, publishers, and many other occupations unless all people in private business are aware of what's going on and are not afraid to speak out."

I think more men and women would speak out if they ever stopped to realize that it is the taxpayer who makes possible all the social services the government does undertake. If government continues to increase the number of business operations it takes over — the number of taxpaying operations will get less and less. Government corporations pay no taxes, and seldom make a profit.

Who is going to be the last taxpayer? He will certainly have a hefty bill to pay! When everyone else is finally on the government payroll in one way or another, that last lonely fellow is going to have to dig very deep indeed.

And the government payroll is not as generous as some are inclined to think. I know men in the civil service who have been overworked and underpaid for years. The workers in the civil service get too little; the loafers in the civil service get too much; and there are far too many of the latter. It is not that they want to be lazy; there are just too many of them for the amount of work required!

Once Over Lightly

By Mary Jukes

(Toronto Globe and Mail)

Distilled waters run deep, we discovered last week. In the Toronto area, to the depth of 3,500,000 gallons a year.

This piece of information was harvested when we called on Gladys M. Bly, President of the only Toronto company exclusively devoted to the distilling ozonating and demineralizing of water in Ontario.

We found the diminutive Miss Bly, five feet, no inches, behind her bleached oak uncluttered desk, in her one-storey manufacturing plant at the corner of Parliament and Shuter.

In less than half an hour we felt convinced that the turning of millions of gallons of Lake Ontario water into various stages of purity, is one of the tidiest little worry-free, ulcer-free businesses we know.

Staff problems are nil. Only five men are needed in the manufacturing and delivering end of the business. Salesmen would be superfluous because business flows in faster than the water flows out. Most of the orders are taken over the telephone, thus eliminating the dreary paper-work entailed in endless letter writing and filing.

Miss Bly told us she was fortunate in having as her Vice-President and office manager, Ernest J. Hancock, a man who worked with her father for several years before Miss Bly joined the company 15 years ago.

"I was an only child," she told us, "and my father thought I should know something about the business before he retired." So she gave up a job with the Board of Education, but not her hobbies which include organ playing, photography, choir singing (she sings in Sherbourne United Church) and fishing.

When she built a house in Scarborough two years ago, she had the living room designed around a Hammond organ concert model and a grand piano.

When her father died five years ago Miss Bly became President.

As our closest brush with distilled water was via a steam iron, we were surprised to learn from Miss Bly that it would be almost impossible to list its many uses. "But I'll try," she said.

Distilled water is used in the dyeing of hair (ordinary water would change the color), in batteries, in the making of blue prints, printed type, plating of glass, sterilizing of doctors' instruments. As it is free of lime, some people suffering from kidney or gall stones, drink it. "Only three parts per million of solids are left in distilled water," she told us.

"Solids," Miss Bly went on to say, "are such things as lime and magnesia and other bone-building properties. For this reason, distilled water should never be given to babies except on a doctor's order."

Water found in gallon bottles upside down on water coolers is also manufactured at the Bly Ozopure plant.

"It is different from distilled water in that ozone is forced through ordinary drinking water to remove the taste of chlorine. Body building solids are intact."

Demineralized water, on the other hand, has some solids removed. It is used to float tropical fish who like it because it makes their vegetation grow so fast.

Customers of the three kinds of bottled water vary all the way from corporations and governments to individuals such as an elderly woman (now dead) who ordered 25 gallons every second week to her rooms in a Toronto hotel. "I never did find out what it was used for," Mr. Hancock confessed.

Bottling water has also pushed the company into the manufacturing of water coolers (also done on the small premises). These are sold or rented as the customer wishes. Sales of accompanying paper cups run to more than 3,000,000 a year.

A clean, tidy, ulcer-free business for a woman.

Note — Miss Bly is well known to many in the Stirling area, as she and her family have camped on the Trent at River Valley for many years.

Home-made street signs with big-city names are one kind of link between the people of the New North and the rest of Canada.

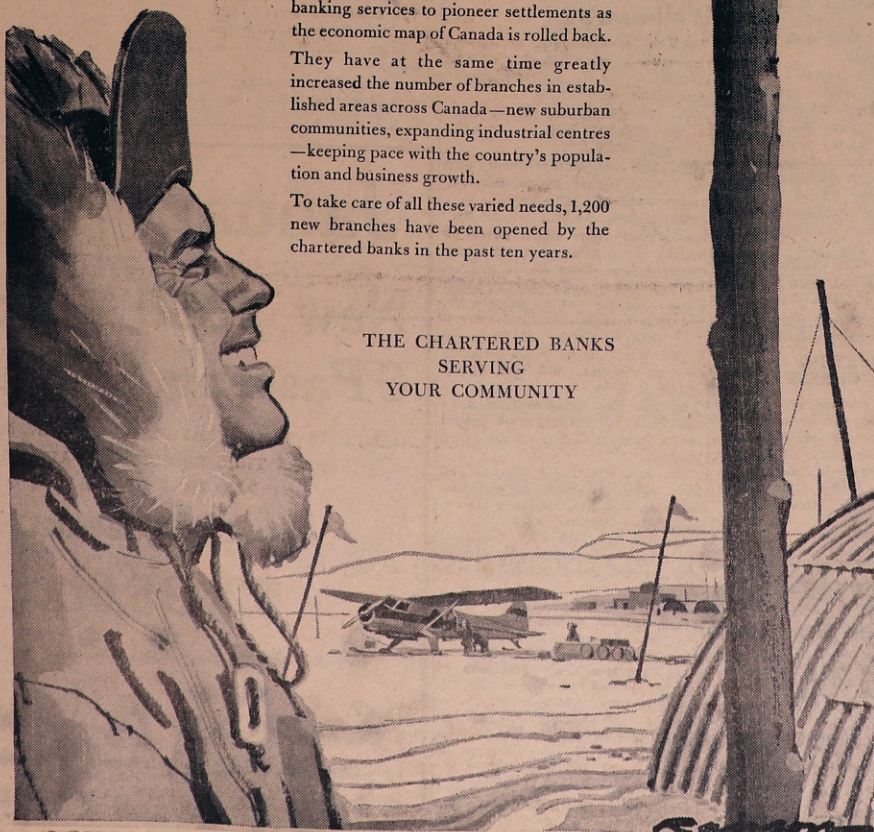

Banking service is another.

Canadian banks have, since the earliest days, taken part in the development of new areas, the opening of new frontiers. Today the chartered banks continue to bring banking services to pioneer settlements as the economic map of Canada is rolled back.

They have at the same time greatly increased the number of branches in established areas across Canada — new suburban communities, expanding industrial centres — keeping pace with the country's population and business growth.

To take care of all these varied needs, 1,200 new branches have been opened by the chartered banks in the past ten years.

JAPANESE BEETLE FOUGHT IN ONTARIO

More than 100 acres in southern Ontario were treated with an insecticide last fall, as two levels of government combined efforts to control the Japanese beetle. Another 30 acres will be covered next spring.

Upwards of 700 acres have been treated since 1941.

This beetle has a rapacious appetite and its meal ticket can be any one of more than 200 plants ranging from flowers to fruit to corn, with the grubs causing extensive damage to lawns when populations are high.

L. L. Reed, who directs survey work for the Plant Protection Division, Canada Department of Agriculture, says that because of the Japanese beetle's fondness for grapes and soft fruits, it could take a costly toll in the Niagara Peninsula unless kept under control. Indications are that it would not thrive in other parts of eastern Canada.

This pest is presumed to have entered the United States in soil around the roots of Japanese plants prior to the restrictions established by the United States Plant Pest Act of 1912. It was first discovered near Philadelphia in 1916 and has been spreading out in an ever widening circle through natural flight. A strict Federal quarantine in the U.S., in effect for many years, has retarded more extensive spread.

First soil treatments were made at Niagara Falls, Ont., in 1941. Lead arsenate gave way to DDT, then replaced by dieldrin. Ten per cent granular dieldrin is spread by ordinary hand grain seeders at the rate of 30 pounds to the acre. This insecticide is considered cheaper, easier to apply, and equally as effective as other insecticides.

Latest application involved land at St. Catharines, Fort Erie, Hamilton, Port Burwell and Windsor.

Every year, trapping operations and soil treatments are carried out with the co-operation of the Ontario Department of Agriculture. Mr. Reed explains. Last year about 2,700 traps were used to capture over 1,000 beetles. This was a substantial reduction over the 4,000 trapped in 1958.

Most significant reduction took place at Fort Erie, where only 176 were caught compared with 3,300 the previous year. This, Mr. Reed believes, was due to the treatment of 30 acres of turf in that town in 1958.

United States uses similar control measures.

WHEAT MARKETS

Canada has exported an average of 288 million bushels of wheat and flour in the past three years, compared with about 200 million bushels in the 10-year period prior to World War II. This represents an increase of about 45 per cent, a report by the Economics Division, Canada Department of Agriculture, points out.

There has also been a shift in the relative importance of particular markets, the report shows.

In the 1958-59 crop year, exports amounted to 288 million bushels — the same as the three-year average. About 62 per cent was purchased by three countries, the United Kingdom (100.6 million bushels), Japan (42.1 million), and West Germany (35 million). In the pre-war period, these countries purchased 118 million, 4.5 million, and 5.4 million bushels respectively.

During the last crop year, 87.5 million bushels were exported to Europe, excluding the U.K., 68.8 million bushels went to Asia, 20.8 million to North and South America and 10.8 million to Africa.

Compared with the pre-war period, these amounts constitute a 70 per cent increase to continental Europe, an almost 700 per cent increase to Asia, a 10 per cent decrease to North and South America, and a 25 per cent increase to Africa.

TIMELY TIPS FOR FARMERS

How To Stop Milkstone

Flush out your milking machine as soon as you finish milking, says Ontario Agricultural College dairy specialist, Fred Hamilton. A delay of even 20 to 30 minutes is enough to start the formation of milkstone. Once milkstone has started to form, you'll need a milkstone remover to clean it out of your equipment.

Research On Silage Mold

Here's something new. The Ontario Department of Agriculture says that Minnesota researchers have had good success eliminating silage mold. They used sulfur candles. The system worked best when rained-on hay was baled as low-moisture silage. The bales were covered with an airtight plastic film and a lighted sulfur candle was placed inside. The candle used up the mold-causing oxygen and produced sulfur-dioxide gas which acts as a preservative.

Don't Fatten Ewes Too Early

You might want to keep ewes on fairly thin pastures after breeding, say livestock experts with the Ontario Department of Agriculture. This prevents adding fat early in the gestation period and decreases the chances of disease.

Keep Engine Clean

When you remove the air cleaner or carburetor of an engine for servicing, lay a clean rag over the intake opening, says A.O.C. engineer, Don Clark. This keeps dirt and foreign objects from dropping into the engine through the opening. Clean engines last longer.

COW POOLS — HAVE THEY A FUTURE IN ONTARIO?

Cow pools! Nothing like them has been seen before in dairy farming.

And in Eastern Ontario a group of farmers is planning to set one up soon. Cows from many herds will be housed, fed, and milked in a central location on contract. The operator of the pool will market the milk.

"None of the U.S. cow pools have operated long enough for anyone to have much data on them," says O.A.C. dairy scientist Dr. Dave Arnott, "but the Fashion Farm cow pool in Iowa seems most adapted to Ontario. Cows are put in a pool under contract and the pool performs all the services, provides the feed, and sells the milk."

"The cow owner gives up cow management yet he still retains cow ownership, and he may care for his dry cows and raise his calves. He is paid for his milk on the basis of a monthly D.H.I.A. weight and test."

Arnott sees cow pools answering 4 big problems:

(1) Farmers without bulk tanks or the money to buy them will be able to "use" the pool's bulk handling systems.

(2) Herds that are too small for efficient production will be able to take advantage of the large-scale efficiency without the responsibility of capital expansion, extra labour, or new management techniques.

(3) Dairymen who are tired of 365 days without a holiday will no longer have the pressing twice-a-day milking chores.

(4) Dairy processors see the cow pool as one means of cutting hauling costs — they will only have one stop for milk. Some processors believe it also gives them a better control of both quantity and quality of milk.

The Ontario Department of Agriculture researcher claims there are some drawbacks to the cow pool system. Dairymen who put their cows in the pool will have to pay cash for items like labor, feed, and housing. In some established pools in the U.S., the charge to cow owners for the use of buildings and equipment is $40.00 per cow per year.

"In the Iowa pool this is payable in advance. The labour cost, veterinary fees, management fees, and miscellaneous costs like bedding, sanitizers, and supplies are all deducted each month from the milk cheque," says Arnott. "This could make quite a hole in the milk cheque," he adds. "And remember, many farmers won't be able to use their family labour. Leisure time doesn't contribute to extra income."

Arnott also states that the production of some cows in the pools has slipped. Cows that used to milk 12,000 have slipped to 9,000. Lack of attention might be one cause — Michigan found that mastitis increased in pooled herds. Good veterinary service was also difficult with large cow numbers.

Arnott believes the proposed cow pool in Eastern Ontario stands a good chance of success, but passes on a Michigan judgment: "A well-adjusted dairy farm with 60 to 80 cows produces milk about as efficiently as the estimates that can be made up for the large cow pools."

HOW TO SELECT POULTRY

For wise selection of poultry, buy by government grade, advises the Home Economic Service of the Ontario Department of Agriculture. There are four grades of poultry — Special (purple tag), Grade A (red tag), Grade B (blue tag), Grade C (yellow tag). Chickens in Special and A grades are also marked "milkfed."

Cut poultry, chicken legs, breasts, wings, etc., and turkey halves or quarters are available in many markets.

Poultry should be plump in appearance, with smooth, soft legs and feet and smooth, moist skin.

The lower end of the breast bone should be flexible. The joint of the wing should twist easily when turned backwards.

Avoid birds with a full crop. Young birds are tender. Old birds, except capons, are tough.

Bruised, dry or purplish skin shows careless dressing or age. Hard, dry, scaly legs, hard breast bone and the presence of long hairs are signs of an old, tough bird.

"The Steel Company of Canada, Limited, to mark its 50th Anniversary Year, is initiating a major programme of financial assistance to students, universities across Canada, and technical institutes in Hamilton and Toronto," H. G. Hilton, Chairman of the Company announced on Tuesday of this week.

Mr. Hilton revealed Stelco's plans to 120 Company sales representatives attending a four-day conference in Hamilton. Their meeting marks the first formal observance of the Company's 50th Anniversary Year.

Stelco's programme of educational assistance has four provisions:

First is the awarding of undergraduate bursaries valued at $1,000 each to 14 Canadian universities from coast to coast.

Second provision is for grants of four, one-year post-graduate fellowships worth $3,000 each established to encourage research in metallurgy.

Third, the Company is also establishing a chair in metallurgy at McMaster University to be known as "The Steel Company of Canada Chair in Metallurgy."

Finally, Stelco will provide eight annual awards of $200 each to students attending the Hamilton Institute of Technology and Ryerson Institute of Technology in Toronto.

The objective of Stelco's bursary plan is to give financial assistance to capable students who might not otherwise attend university. The Company will grant 14 bursaries each year, each bursary to run a maximum of four years for any one student. After four years there will be a maximum of 56 bursaries outstanding with a total annual value of $56,000.

The Stelco bursaries will provide $500 each year for the student and a similar amount for the general funds of the university which he or she attends. There will be no restriction on the course of study.

There are 14 universities in the programme and each university will administer the four bursaries awarded to it. The following universities are included in the programme: University of British Columbia, University of Alberta, University of Saskatchewan, University of Manitoba, University of Western Ontario, McMaster University, University of Toronto, Queen's University, McGill University, University of Montreal, Laval University, University of New Brunswick, Dalhousie University in Nova Scotia, and Memorial University in Newfoundland.

The Stelco Fellowships will be awarded by a committee set up by the Canadian University Foundation. Each fellowship provides $2,000 yearly to the student and $1,000 to the university where the post-graduate work in metallurgical research will be taken.

Establishment of The Steel Company of Canada Chair in Metallurgy at McMaster University will enable the University to appoint a senior Metallurgist with a distinguished reputation to its Department of Metallurgy. The appointment is expected to increase the research activities of the department. All details of the post will be administered by McMaster.

The eight annual awards to technology students will be administered by the Institutes. Since each award of $200 will run a maximum of three years, there will be 24 awards with a total value of $4,800 outstanding after the initial three years.

"In addition to this new plan of financial assistance to Canadian education," Mr. Hilton told the Stelco salesmen, "We shall maintain four scholarships with a total value of $9,600 which have been awarded to Hamilton and District high school students. These include three scholarships worth $2,400 each for students majoring in engineering, science, business administration, commerce and finance, and another $2,400 scholarship for a student seeking a career as a secondary school teacher."

January Meeting Stirling W.I.

During January the Stirling Women's Institute have completed two quilts and now three quilts are in readiness when needed.

On Thursday a quilting and pot luck dinner was held at the home of Mrs. W. C. West. The evening before some of the members put the quilt on the frames and during the afternoon a business meeting was held with the members still quilting.

The President, Mrs. B. Reid, opened the meeting with the Ode, Mary Stewart Collect and repeating of the Lord's Prayer.

The roll call "New Year's Resolutions," resulted in many good suggestions proposed.

Mrs. West gave a reading on New Year's resolutions, which was well worthwhile passing on to others.

"What are the ingredients for good new year resolutions? First, a resolution is something that must be effective for the twelve months of the year. One that requires strong will power is a great work well done.

"A Pentecostal minister's views are — I will try to be short sighted, that I cannot see the faults of others; so deaf I cannot hear gossip, and so sharp of ear that I can catch any good spoken of others, so dumb I cannot quarrel.

"The president of a Catholic society says — Better resolve to help one needy family than to change the map of Europe. Bad habits may seem friendly, because they fit like old clothes.

"Anglican minister — believes in giving up one meal a week and send its value to the World Refugee Year Fund. Treat all people as humans.

"St. Andrew's minister has a brief suggestion — A person should ask himself each week what kind of a church would my church be if all of the members were just like me?

"Salvation Army Brigadier suggests — I resolve to spread into the new year to some degree the goodwill, kindness and cheerfulness so much in evidence at Christmas.

"The Baptist minister replies with this — A person should ask themselves, has my kind of religion made Canada a better country? Was the advice of King George VI good when he said "put your hand in the hand of God as I do?"

Canadian Council of Churches says — The Golden Rule is the best resolution as all others are combined in one it is not the greatest importance to make a resolution, but to keep it. Resolve to do unto others as you would they do unto you.

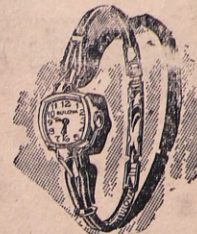

"Editor of United Church Observer says — Knowing that if I keep all the good resolutions I think about, I will fall in most of them. I shall remember when the Good Lord made me he mixed in a lot of faults with the good so it is these that I will try to make better and by doing this I will touch the lives of others."

Reporter's note — It would be interesting to hear from the ministers of the village their views of a "New Year's Resolution."

Mrs. Montgomery read the correspondence which included an invitation to the Home of the Aged, regarding the forming of an auxiliary. Thank you letters and cards for Christmas remembrances were received. The Scott Mission replied with a thankful letter for the bale of clothing the W.I. had forwarded. The value of this bale was estimated at $150.00.

Mrs. C. West expressed thanks to the W.I. on behalf of the Girl Guides and Brownies.

Mrs. W. C. West presented the Treasurer's report, stating that further donations from the apron sale at the last meeting had been received. She also said that she had received half of the lot of silver spoons that were ordered.

Mrs. M. Aythart and Mrs. E. Foster were appointed to cut out material for another quilt. Several lots of patches were handed in for this work.

The Treasurer was authorized to purchase lining for one or more quilts as she saw fit to do. Mrs. W. H. Cooke kindly donated a quilt bat, which was gladly received.

The Secretary was instructed to write the District President re the Branch visit.

Mrs. E. Luery will be hostess for the February meeting at her home. At this meeting (if time allows), Mrs. West will further the Historical Research topic.

A short reading on "Historic Hastings" was given at Thursday's meeting. Some items of interest to Stirling citizens were: 170 years ago — 1790 — Captain John W. Meyers is said to have begun the first industry at Belleville, a lumber mill, the present site of the Belleville Creameries, now operated by W. C. West and Co. 120 years ago, 1840, Benjamin Loyal Orange Lodge, No. 274, was organized. 110 years ago, 1850, Edward Fidler, of Rawdon, was chosen first Warden of Hastings County. His farm at that time being located where Nathan Wannamaker lives and adjoining land.

Very little do a number of residents of the village know of the business and transactions of the beginning of time in our village and surrounding country. This is one main reason why a record should be kept for reference for the coming generations.

With the singing of the Queen the meeting was brought to a close. The social cup of tea was served by the hostess and Mrs. C. Wright.

"I have always maintained," said President Garcia "that whatever institutions man may build for his political, social and economic advancement, these cannot long endure if they are not founded upon the rock of moral practices and upright living," adding, "The Word of God should be the nation's chief guide."

This campaign is part of a crusade for higher morality in public office which is being sponsored by the International Leadership Groups in the Philippines.

OMELETS IDEAL FOR ANY QUICK MEAL

In one of the reference books in the Consumer Section, Canada Department of Agriculture, there are recipes for more than 40 different kinds of omelets for breakfast, dinner, supper and even for dessert! This is not surprising when you consider there are over 1000 ways of serving eggs, but doesn't it start you wondering why more people don't make omelets?

"Short order cooking" is one of the answers to successful omelet preparation. This restaurant term means "to cook just before serving." If a tender, tasty omelet is not served right flabby and won't taste nearly as good either. Omelets are therefore ideal for any quick meal.

As a general rule, a small omelet can be made more successfully than a large one so most omelet recipes do not call for more than 4 eggs. Individual omelets of 2 eggs each, are very attractive but most people do not away it will soon become flat and have enough small frying pans to make omelets this way for the whole family.

There are two types of omelet: The plain or French type is similar in texture to scrambled eggs and the fluffy or American type resembles a souffle.

In the plain omelet the yolks and the whites are beaten together with milk, poured into a hot, well-greased skillet and lifted gently from time to time (not stirred) to permit the uncooked mixture to flow underneath. It takes about 5 minutes to cook a plain omelet.

For the fluffy omelet, the whites are beaten separately until stiff then folded into the egg yolks and milk which have been mixed together. The mixture is cooked slowly for 10 to 15 minutes, without any stirring, until puffy and beginning to shrink from the sides of the pan. Then the omelet is placed in a 300 deg. F. oven until completely set and dry on top, about 10 minutes.

The ingredients for both types of omelets are the same. This recipe makes 2 to 4 servings, depending on how and when it is being served.

Omelet

- 1 tablespoon butter
- 4 eggs
- 4 tablespoons milk or water
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 1-8 teaspoon pepper

Melt butter in frying pan. Mix and cook remaining ingredients according to previous methods given for plain or fluffy omelet.

After cooking crease the omelet through centre with spatula, fold over and serve on a hot platter.

A Few of the More-Than-Forty Kinds of Omelets

Some of the most delicious omelets are the simplest to prepare, for example, ham, chicken, mushroom, cheese or onion omelet. The cooked meat or vegetable or grated cheese can be either folded into the uncooked egg mixture or placed in the centre of the finished omelet before folding. The filling of course, should be ready before the omelet so that there will be no delay in getting it to the table while still hot and puffy.

Italian Omelet

Make plain or fluffy omelet and serve with spaghetti sauce on top.

Bacon Omelet

Fry 4 or 5 bacon strips until cooked. Just before folding omelet place 2 or 3 strips of bacon in centre of omelet. Serve remaining bacon strips on top.

Creamed Mushroom Omelet

Make creamed mushrooms and serve over top of cooked omelet.

Chicken Curry Omelet

Saute a little onion in butter, add chopped cooked or canned chicken and heat. Season with curry powder and salt and use as filling for omelet.

Potato Omelet

Saute a little chopped onion with diced, cooked potatoes in butter until onions are transparent. Cover and cook 5 minutes then pour in omelet mixture, cover and cook until set.

Asparagus Omelet

Add small pieces of cooked or canned asparagus to uncooked omelet mixture. Cook, then lay a little bundle of hot, buttered asparagus tips either in the fold or in a shallow opening cut along the top of the omelet just before serving.

Herb Omelet

Add equal quantities of several herbs, such as parsley, chervil, chive and tarragon to uncooked omelet mixture.

Omelet Tips

The addition of milk or water (1 tablespoon per egg) to an omelet makes it more tender fluffy.

To make an omelet glossy spread a little butter on top at serving time.

An ideal omelet is plump and mellow in the middle, pointed at both ends, and golden brown all over.

Holloway United Hostess To Presbyterial

The Belleville Presbyterial Executive meeting was held at Holloway Street United Church, Belleville, on Monday, January 18th, with twenty-six members attending. Mrs. Clarence Holmes presided. Mrs. Geo. Priest quoted from Luke 2: 41-52 in her devotional and said as members of the Woman's Missionary Society "our Father's business should be our main concern as we enter another new year."

Mrs. Holmes called on Mrs. Frank Townsend who extended a welcome from the ladies of Holloway. The Fall Executive meeting was invited to meet at Ivanhoe.

Mrs. Chas. Johnston, of Trenton, gave the Corresponding Secretary's report. Mrs. R. G. Coulter, of Belleville, Treasurer, reported that the Presbyterial allocation had been met last year, with a substantial sum to be sent to G.B.A. Mrs. H. M. Davis, Christian Stewardship Secretary, said that we should be very thankful for the loyalty, devotion and sacrifice of the W.M.S. groups who made this possible. At this time Mrs. Holmes asked all to repeat a verse from the hymn "Good unto all men is the Lord."

All other department secretaries presented brief reports. With the singing of a hymn the morning session adjourned to enjoy a very delicious buffet luncheon prepared by Mrs. Scott's group of Holloway United.

"Onward Christian Soldiers," followed by the Lord's Prayer, opened the next session. Mrs. Percy MacMullen presented the new books. Mrs. O. Bertram and Mrs. Lincoln Elliott of the Bay of Quinte Conference Branch, spoke to the ladies. All are reminded of the United Church TV presentations on February 14th and March 13th respectively. Also on January 31st Rev. Anson Moorhouse, who assisted with the filming of "I'll Sing, Not Cry," will be speaking at a church service in Belleville.

A full Presbyterial meeting will be held in Tabernacle Church, Belleville, on February 22nd (evening) and February 23rd (all day), with Miss Greta Gauld, Missionary on furlough from South Formosa and Mrs. C. S. Paterson from the Dominion Board as speakers. The theme of this meeting will be "Mission to the Uttermost."

For 6 or 7 satisfying plain or toasted sandwiches, chop 6 hard cooked eggs and mix with 3 slices crisp bacon, chopped and a little onion, salt and pepper. Moisten with mayonnaise.

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

UNUSUAL WELCOME MAT

Recently I read a press report to the effect that a Japanese corporation has "sent a team of experts to Canada's prairie provinces to explore the possibility of establishing factories for the manufacture of small goods in underdeveloped areas."

So we're an underdeveloped area, yet!

Anyhow, because I live in Winnipeg, where we have a big needle trade, I decided to pop this news report under the nose of a textile manufacturer to see what he'd say. He has been complaining that it is very tough trying to compete with exports from Japan, so I wanted to get his reaction to having one of their textile factories in his own backyard. He surprised me with his answer.

His exact words were, "This is a very silly idea, but I am all in favour of it."

"The Japanese firm would then learn what it means to be a manufacturer in Canada, with Canadian taxes and wages, compared with the advantages they have in Japan."

"At present the Japanese textile people pay wages at about 15 cents an hour, with all sorts of encouragement from their own government. They drop their products in Canada with the utmost ease, able to undercut Canadian prices, which are, in effect, Canadian wages."

"If the Japanese gave up all of this and moved plants into Canada, their basic costs would then be the same as mine, and I would once more be able to compete for the Canadian market, and my workers would enjoy some security."

"Just why the Japanese should choose to do this I cannot pretend to know, but I am certainly in favour of it."

It will be interesting to see whether the Japanese experts go home and advise their manufacturers to come here, or to stay put in Japan. The local textile people say that the answer is certain: they'll stay in Japan.

Hastings Co. Road Budget Fixed Same As Last Year

A roads and bridges bylaw calling for an expenditure of $335,000, virtually the same as last year, was formally approved by Hastings County Council Thursday afternoon of last week as various financial matters came up for discussion.

The road bylaw approved by Council has $235,000 allotted for maintenance, leaving $100,000 for construction. It is expected that a supplementary bylaw allowing for additional road construction will be passed later in the year.

Of the total of the bylaw, an amount of $54,000 will be used on suburban roads, although this amount is not sufficient to carry out all the construction planned. The suburban road expenditure was kept at the $54,000 amount so the City of Belleville share would not exceed a one half mill levy on the city assessment.

There are 14½ miles of suburban road in the County with costs shared 25 per cent each by the city and county and the remaining 50 per cent by the province.

Subway Question

Sidney Reeve Harleigh Hamilton, who read the county road report was chairman of the committee, referred briefly to the proposed subway for the Glen Miller - Trenton road beneath the CNR double track, which he said had been approved for construction this year.

He said the Town of Trenton would be approached by the roads committee with the view of finalizing an agreement with that municipality for sharing the cost of the proposed subway.

He said the subway would prove a great benefit to Trenton as it would to the county.

Reeve Hamilton said there were several ways in which Trenton could share in the county cost. He felt the best way was for Trenton to share in the direct county cost rather than set up a suburban road commission for that area. He said if the county did the work it could get an 80 per cent provincial grant on its share of the cost.

Estimated cost of the proposed subway is in the neighbourhood of $200,000 with the Board of Transport Commissioners and the Railway to pay a major portion of the cost.

Salary Increased

The salary of the County Assessor Cecil Geen was raised from $3,800 to $4,300 with 10 cents per mile for his car. The remuneration of County Weed Inspector was raised from $8 to $10 per day, also with 10 cents per mile for car mileage to be paid.

Finance committee chairman Douglas Spencer said the jail employees had presented a request to his committee for salary increases and were asking that a definite salary schedule be set up by council. He said the committee felt, however, that salaries should be reviewed annually.

A request for an increase of approximately $500 yearly for the jail governor, turnkey and guards was asked.

Jail employees also had asked for a 40-hour week, but Mr. Spencer said his committee had ruled that the present 48-hour week should continue.

Mr. Spencer said Belleville jail employees had received increases totaling $560 in the past four years. He said they were receiving approximately $100 more annually than were other jail employees in the Quinte area and about $100 less than the Ontario average.

Publicity Budget

The publicity committee budget was set at $2,000, up $1,000 from the amount last year, which proved to be insufficient.

Reason for this year's increase was the possibility of an increased grant to the Madawaska Tourist Association, and to make provision for a possible grant to the Lake Ontario Development Association, which is asking for a $500 county contribution.

Mr. Rose was high in his praise of the LODA which publicized this area as an area for the location of new industry and also from a tourist standpoint.

It was left to the publicity committee to decide whether a grant would be made to the LODA and, if so, what the amount would be.

British Doctors Graft Marrow

A group of British doctors reported that they believe to be the first example of prolonged survival of a marrow graft in a human being.

The doctors reported in the British Medical Journal that the graft was still active after more than 10 months. In the past grafts have not survived for any length of time.

The case involved a 30-year-old woman suffering from Hodgkin's Disease, a condition affecting the lymphatic glands and eventually leading to serious anemia.

The patient had been treated with x-rays and powerful drugs. It later was found that the bone marrow, responsible for the manufacture of blood cells, had ceased to function.

NEWS FOR THE BUSY FARMER

OAT FAMILY TIES
NOT SO RUSTY

Plant breeders have developed new methods that will enable them to use distant relatives of oats to improve cultivated varieties.

Sand oats and some other grass-like species that are not grown under cultivation have desirable characteristics that common oats lack. Chief among these are resistance to diseases such as crown and stem rust.

Sand oats differ in number of chromosomes from common oats and this difference has made it difficult to obtain crosses between these species and common oats. Even when hybrids are obtained they are usually sterile and produce no seed.

However, research conducted during the past six years at the Central Experimental Farm has shown how to overcome the difficulties in obtaining hybrids from species as widely different as sand oats and common oats.

Resistance to new and highly virulent races of crown rust has been incorporated into common oats from sand oats for use in breeding programmes.

This advance has opened up a vast new source of material for improving common oats, states F. J. Zillinsky of the Genetics and Plant Breeding Institute, Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa.

Performance Tested
Bulls Featured

Entries in the 1960 beef bull sale total 283 head, which represents a decrease of 13 from the previous year. For the second consecutive year Herefords lead the other breeds in numbers consigned, the total being 164. Shorthorns are second with 97, while the Aberdeen Angus entry at 22 is the lowest for several years.

Well over 60 percent of the bulls in this year's sale have qualified for the designation "performance tested," reveals W. P. Watson, Ontario Livestock Commissioner. This means that they have been tested under Ontario's Advanced Registry policy for Beef Cattle and that except for the heifer's first calves their average daily gain was at least 2.30 pounds during the test period and not less than 2.15 pounds between birth and the end of the test, that is up to the time they were approximately 131 months old. Although an average daily lifetime gain of 2.05 pounds is permissible in the case of heifer's first calves, the minimum gain requirements during the test period are the same as for bulls out of older dams.

All bulls will be inspected by a culling committee and regardless of their performance status only those that are approved from the standpoint of type will be eligible to pass through the sale. Any that are rejected must be removed from the building before the sale commences. Every Ontario farmer who purchases performance tested bulls will be eligible for a premium of 20 percent of the purchase price but not more than $150.00.

This year's sale will be held in the Sheep and Swine Arena, Royal Winter Fair Building, Toronto, on Wednesday and Thursday, March 2nd and 3rd, with the Herefords and Angus selling on the first day, the Shorthorns on the second day.

Hog Registrations

Failure to provide registration numbers with hog shipments could disqualify Canadian farmers from participating in the Federal government's deficiency payment scheme, Homer J. Maybee, Associate Director of the Livestock Division, Canada Department of Agriculture, warns.

He said a number of producers have marketed hogs without registration numbers since the new price support programme went into effect January 11th.

Registration of hog producers has been proceeding since last November, said Mr. Maybee, and over 100,000 registrations have been processed. Farmers who have applied for registration but have not yet received their registration numbers are being provided for through instructions sent to them with the settlements.

All producers who have numbers should be certain that a record of the number is sent with the hogs. This means that the trucker or shipper should record the number along with the farmer's name, address and tattoo identification of the hogs on the manifest which he delivers with the hogs.

Mr. Maybee said the Agriculture Stabilization Board is urging the co-operation of producers, shippers, sales agencies, and processors in making the registration number a regular part of the information that normally accompanies hogs to market.

NEW PARASITIC DISEASE
REPORTED IN ONTARIO CATTLE

Dr. David Campbell of the Ontario Veterinary College, Department of Parasitology, has recently reported that a parasitic disease of cattle exists in widely separated parts of Ontario. The parasite is a small intestinal worm and it is causing a serious set-back in the calves in some herds. The exact geographic distribution is not known, but cases have been found on farms in Northern, Eastern and Western Ontario. The parasite has been known to exist in Ontario for some time, but it is only recently that it has been recognized as a problem.

The disease affects calves and usually becomes apparent sometime after the animals are 6 weeks old. Affected animals develop persistent scours and fail to make satisfactory gains. The animals continue to eat well but they go down in flesh very quickly. The disease is spread from calf to calf in the manure.

According to Dr. Campbell, clean calf pens are essential if the disease is to be prevented. Care should be taken to see that calves are not penned or pastured where other cattle or calves have been kept recently.

Microscopic examination of the feces is the only reliable means of diagnosing Nematodirias. The examination may be carried out by a veterinarian or a veterinary laboratory. A new drug will be available in the near future for the treatment of the disease. The disease may be prevented if good sanitary procedures are followed for the housing of calves.

TIMELY TIPS FOR FARMERS

Few grain weevils and beetles will survive if you turn over infested grain in the winter air, says Harold Goble, Provincial Entomologist for the Ontario Department of Agriculture. Don't use a commercial grain fumigant if the temperature is below 60 degrees. Apparently the chemicals won't vaporize completely.

Cows vary in their need for salt, says Professor G. E. Raithby, Head of the Animal Husbandry Department at the O.A.C. Feed some salt free choice. Hand feeding and mixing salt in the grain rations might not supply the needs of each cow.

Now's the time to arrange for next spring's supply of seed potatoes, advises R. E. Goodin of the Crops Branch, Ontario Department of Agriculture. Maritime production was down almost 25 per cent last fall and Ontario growers harvested the smallest seed supply in the last two decades. Growers who buy now will beat the spring rush and maybe higher prices.

You might think that records take up too much time for their worth. Not so, says Agricultural Representative Bruce Matheson. He has found that it takes only about an hour to assist a farmer in taking inventory at the beginning of the year and a half an hour a year to bring the inventory up to date at the end of the year. He feels that a farmer shouldn't have to spend any more than 2 hours a month keeping up a set of books.

THE VALUE OF SILAGE

In case you have to dicker with a neighbour over how much his silage is worth, buy on this basis: Corn silage is worth about one-third the price of good alfalfa hay.

So says Dr. Bill Tossell, forage researcher at the O.A.C. According to him, "the feeding value of 3 pounds of good corn silage is about equal to the feeding value of 1 pound of good alfalfa hay. If the hay is selling for $21.00 a ton, corn silage is worth about $7.00 a ton."

You might still have trouble estimating quantity, but you can get a fair guide by using these figures. A settled column of 14x26 feet of silage weighs about 70 tons. The density increases as you go towards the bottom and the bottom 10 feet would weigh about 27 tons. From these figures you should be able to calculate approximately how much silage you are buying and its approximate worth.

HOW TO HANDLE
MANURE IN THE FIELD

What's best?

Some say they like to store manure in a pile. Others feel that daily spreading is better. It may be too late this year to change your system, but here's what the soil specialists say:

"Daily spreading is better than storing manure in a pile," says Bill Campbell, soils specialist at O.A.C. His reasoning:

Stored manure ferments and leaches in the pile.

Fermentation changes half the nitrogen to ammonia, which is lost when the pile is opened.

It's easier to spend half an hour spreading each day than a whole week in the spring.

You have a clean barnyard the year around.

Daily spreading doesn't work in all cases. If the land is hilly or rolling, nutrient losses occur through spring run-off. But there is a trick which helps to control run-off losses: Spread manure on the plowed fields only after they're well covered with snow. Another problem in daily spreading is the deep snow of the snow-belt areas.

Now, there's a new problem. Farmers with loafing barns can't move the manure until spring. "The secret here," says Campbell, "is to get the manure worked into the soil before it can dry out." Spreading on a cloudy day or just before a rain is ideal. The lack of sun cuts down on the nitrogen evaporation losses, and the rain dissolves and washes the nitrogen into the soil.

During the past 10 years, Canada's petroleum and natural gas exploration and development industry has invested $3.8 billion in Canada.

Woodlots provide a good cash crop.

CONSERVATION
NEWS

TRAVELLING TROUT

Fisherman George Cooper, of Picton, came up with an unusual fish in his gillnets one day recently. It was a 17 inch rainbow trout, bearing a tag on its lower jaw. On checking, it was found that the fish came from Twenty Mile Creek, a tributary to Lake Erie, near the Pennsylvania - New York border. Two thousand fish were stocked at an average length of 9.7 inches on April 11th, 1959, so this ambitious trout survived the trip over Niagara Falls, swam more than 200 miles and gained more than 7 inches in length and one and one-half pounds in weight — all in the space of seven and one-half months.

The Pennsylvania Fish Commission reports that a number of these rainbows have found their way over the Falls, and have been caught by anglers in the river below, but this is the farthest recapture to date.

This is the second such long-distance recapture for George Cooper, and the first apparently holds the record for rainbow trout migrations in the Great Lakes. It was a yearling planted in May, 1958 at 8.8 inches in the Ocnueoc River, northern Lake Huron and recaptured in the Bay of Quinte (a distance of 600 miles) 8 months later at 18 inches in length.

FISH AND WILDLIFE

The critical time for deer has once more arrived and already one defenceless doe was drowned after having jumped through thin ice in a vain effort to evade the pursuing dogs. This very thing can be avoided by the complete co-operation of dog owners.

Dog does not necessarily mean hound but does mean any domestic dog, therefore all dogs capable of chasing deer should be housed or tied.

Under existing Ontario Statutes it is an offence to allow a dog to run at large, and as a warning to all dog owners throughout the deer inhabited areas, dogs found running at large will be picked up and the owner charged, if the dog is running deer it may be shot on sight and the owner also charged. It is therefore your duty to co-operate.

National Health Week
Jan. 31st - Feb. 6th

Once again National Health Week has arrived in Canada. This event will be observed for the 16th successive year during the week commencing January 31st, 1960.

Of recent years, the observing of National Weeks for this or that has become popular. But National Health Week is probably the oldest and certainly the most widely observed and the most important of all — not only in Canada but in the world — and why not? Nothing is more important for human beings than life — and to live life and to live fully a long life, one must have health. Health in the terms of the definition of the World Health Organization is "not merely the absence of disease but a state of perfect physical, mental and social well-being." This is an objective to which every living human being should give thought, and it is well that during one week of the year, we should be encouraged to consider seriously the things that each one of us as citizens should adopt as a health objective for the succeeding year.

For too many of our citizens, the only time one gives thought to the importance of health is when the doctor has arrived at the door after we have become sick. Far too few of us think of the disastrous results of unnecessary sickness in terms of misery, unhappiness, disability, poverty and perhaps unnecessary death. For too many of us, science has provided the means to stay healthy but we are indifferent. Sickness — mental, physical or spiritual — is too frequently our lot because we have not learned the simple lesson that health and long life are attainable for virtually everybody.

This is a message to all Canadians to make Health Week a success. Listen to the messages you may receive by the spoken or written word. Organize your own group or community so that messages from authorities in the field of health may reach good audiences. Help make the most important annual national event in Canada more important still because without health, there can be nothing more important.

Disunity Weakness

Farm groups must work together if farmers are to obtain a larger and fairer share of the national income, said Hugh Bailey, a member of the Ontario Farm Products Marketing Board, at the annual meeting of the Ontario Soybean Growers' Marketing Board at Chatham last week.

Some people feel the Federation of Agriculture and the Farmers' Union could not drop their differences.

"I don't think we should give up. As long as the Union is asking for one thing and the Federation for another, we are not going to get anywhere." He recommended marketing control by a federal rather than a provincial board of all nationally-produced farm commodities.

Mr. Bailey said he did not think farm groups should become "jelly-fish" in their negotiations with processors, but he felt that a friendly relationship between the two groups could be mutually beneficial. He suggested disposal of some of North America's food surpluses by government financed programmes to feed the hungry of other nations.

The growth in the pulp and paper companies' forests continues to exceed the cut.

Mrs. Jack Bush Hostess To River Valley W.M.S.

On Tuesday afternoon, January 19 the River Valley Woman's Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. Jack Bush for their monthly meeting.

The President, Mrs. Glenn Bush, opened the meeting with the poem, "New Year's Wish." All joined in singing the hymn, "Standing on the Portal," followed by the Lord's Prayer.

All the reports of last year were given, which showed a good year indeed. Many who had received Christmas boxes sent their thanks and appreciation for them.

Mrs. Roy Bush introduced Mrs. Geo. Carlisle, who was present to install the officers. Mrs. Carlisle spoke briefly to all, as officers or those who will be officers in the future. To the Glory of God should be imprinted on our every task. We should also strive to plant ourselves on a higher plane. All of us should rededicate ourselves anew. Following the installation Mrs. Carlisle read the aims and objects of the W.M.S. and led the group in prayer. Everyone sang the hymn "Lord in the Strength of Grace." The benediction brought this very impressive service to a close.

Thirteen members answered the roll call by paying their fees. Two new members were welcomed to the group.

The World's Day of Prayer is to be held on Friday, March 4th in St. John's Anglican Church, Stirling, and River Valley has been asked to furnish a speaker. The theme this year will be "Labourers Together with God."

The programme was handed over to Mrs. Roy Irvin. Following the call to worship the hymn "Blest are the Pure in Heart," was sung. The Scripture

Lesson, Luke 11: 1-13, was read by Mrs. Chard. All repeated the Lord's Prayer. An inspiring worship service on the Lord's Prayer was led by Mrs. Irvine.

Mrs. Ross Bush gave the chapter in the study book on the different people in Africa. The closing hymn was "Breathe On Me Breathe of God," followed by the benediction.

All enjoyed dainty refreshments. Mrs. Ralph Utman moved a vote of thanks to the hostess, lunch and programme committees.

to a Better World," from the Country Woman's magazine. Plans were made for another social evening in February with Mrs. Alex Tanner, Mrs. David Little and Mrs. Farley Lindenfield the committee.

Current events were given by Mrs. David Little.

Mrs. Alex Tanner, Canadian Industries Convener, presided over the programme. "A New Year is Unwrapped," was read by Mrs. Ivan Clare.

Mrs. Tanner gave a very interesting paper on the material "Terylene." This material needs little or no ironing. Pleats will stay in even when washed. White garments stay white and do not become yellow with age, detergents or sunlight. Garments made from terylene keep their shape and it is economical because it is long wearing. It is as strong when wet as when dry.

Many uses are found for terylene — we find blouses, skirts, dresses, lingerie, slacks, shirts and curtains are made from it.

Mrs. Chas. Ross read the poem, "Friendship," by Edgar Guest. Mrs. Tanner asked several riddles and conducted a contest of scrambled names of Belleville industries.

The meeting was closed with the singing of the National Anthem which was followed by refreshments.
